A Vineyard In Napa A Vineyard In Napa:

Napa Wine Charles L. Sullivan, 2008-10-01 Charles Sullivan's Napa Wine A History is the engaging story of the rise to prominence of what many believe to be the greatest winegrowing area in the Western hemisphere. This new edition completes that picture bringing to light more than a decade of dramatic changes and shifted norms visited upon the valley from phylloxera-wasted vineyards to High Court officiated territorial battles told in a rousing transportive narrative. Beginning in 1817 with the movement of Spanish missions into the San Francisco Bay area, Sullivan winds his way through the great wine boom of the late 19th century, the crippling effect of Prohibition, and Napa's rise out of its havoc to its eventual rivaling of Bordeaux in the judgments of 1976 and 2006. Published in cooperation with the Napa Valley Wine Library, the book includes historic maps, charts of vineyard ownership, and vintages from the 1880s to the present.

A Vineyard in Napa Doug Shafer, 2012-11-12 At the age of 47, when he, a successful publishing executive, was living with his wife and four children in an affluent Chicago suburb, John Shafer made the surprise announcement that he had purchased a vineyard in the Napa Valley. In 1973 he moved his family to California and with no knowledge of winemaking began the journey that would lead him thirty years later to own and operate what distinguished wine critic Robert M. Parker Jr. called one of the world's greatest wineries. This book, narrated by Shafer's son Doug, is a personal account of how his father turned his midlife dream into a remarkable success story. Set against the backdrop of Napa Valley's transformation from a rural backwater in the 1970s through its emergence today as one of the top wine regions in the world, the book begins with the winery's shaky start and takes the reader through the father and son's ongoing battles against killer bugs, cellar disasters, local politics, changing consumer tastes, and the volatility of nature itself. Doug Shafer tells the story of his own education as well as Shafer Vineyards' innovative efforts to be environmentally sustainable, its role in spearheading the designation of a Stags Leap American Viticultural Area, and how the wine industry has changed in the contemporary era of custom crushing and hobbyist winery investors.

Sit back and relax as author Dr. Liz Thach, first female Master of Wine from California, introduces you to the men and women who are guardians of some of the most sacred plots of land on earth for wine lovers. Written in the first person with close and intimate conversations with vineyard managers and winemakers, this non-fiction book will not only inspire you with the meticulous care and environmental practices being used in these vineyards but will explain how viticulture decisions such as canopy management and clonal selection impact wine quality. Most importantly, this book taps into the soul of the vineyard and describes how working amongst the vines provides insights into a balanced life and respect for the graces of nature. Inspired to write this book when visiting La Tache and Romanée Conti vineyards in France and witnessing the respect and admiration carloads of tourists had for these famous vineyards, Liz decided to begin an exploration of the famous vineyards of her own homeland, California. Armed with the help and guidance of the Napa Valley Vintners and the Sonoma County Vintners, she was able to identify a list of ten Napa and Sonoma County vineyards that fit the criteria of being a historic vineyard unique in some special way, such as location or varietal and/or consistently producing a high number of award-winning wines. Ghost Wineries of Napa Valley Irene W. Haynes, 1999-10-01. Extensively researched by a resident grape grower and historian, this is the fascinating photographic tour of historic Napa wineries. The historical details and photographs of more than 65 wineries bring vision of the vibrant California wine industry of more than 100 years ago, and the roots of many of today's great vintners are exposed in these photos and historical vignettes. Napa Valley Charles O'Rear, 2011. Tourism is the world's largest employer, and tourists today want to experience the world through all five senses. Tasting the Good Life tells the story of Napa tourism through the words of the tourists who visit and the men and women who provide the products and services they rely on. The stories of 17 people, from winemaker to vineyard manager, from celebrity chef to wait staff, from hot air balloonist to masseuse, provide extraordinary insight into this new form of tourism and its impact on an iconic American place. DRIVE THROUGH NAPA
