A Woman's Touch: Women in Design 1860 Till Present:

The Women Who Professionalized Interior Design Peter Dedek, 2022-03-10 The Women Who Professionalized Interior Design explores the history of interior decorating and design from the late nineteenth century to the present highlighting the careers and contributions of significant American female interior designers who were instrumental in the creation of the field of residential and commercial interior design in the United States This book explores how interior design emerged as a distinct paying occupation in the nineteenth century thanks to a growing middle class and an increase in available cheap household goods following the Industrial Revolution Focusing primarily on the period from 1905 to 1960 it addresses the complex relationships among professionals in the design fields the social dynamics of designer client relationships and how class culture and family influenced their lives and careers The book emphasizes significant female interior decorators and writers on design including Candace Wheeler Elsie de Wolfe Edith Wharton Nancy McClelland Ruby Ross Wood Dorothy Draper Eleanor McMillen Brown and Sister Parish all of whom are underrepresented in the historical record relating their stories within the context of the history of design and architecture This book is an ideal and concise resource for students and faculty of interior design and women's history

The Routledge Companion to Design Studies Penny Sparke, Fiona Fisher, 2016-06-17 Since the 1990s in response to dramatic transformations in the worlds of technology and the economy design a once relatively definable discipline complete with a set of sub disciplines has become unrecognizable Consequently design scholars have begun to address new issues themes and sub disciplines such as sustainable design design for well being empathic design design activism design anthropology and many more The Routledge Companion to Design Studies charts this new expanded spectrum and embraces the wide range of scholarship relating to design theoretical practice related and historical that has emerged over the last four decades Comprised of forty three newly commissioned essays the Companion is organized into the following six sections Defining Design Discipline Process Defining Design Objects Spaces Designing Identities Gender Sexuality Age Nation Designing Society Empathy Responsibility Consumption the Everyday Design and Politics Activism Intervention Regulation Designing the World Globalization Transnationalism Translation Contributors include both established and emerging scholars and the essays offer an international scope covering work emanating from and relating to design in the United Kingdom mainland Europe North America Asia Australasia and Africa This comprehensive collection makes an original and significant contribution to the field of Design Studies

Women's Places Brenda Martin, Penny Sparke, 2003 What was different about the environments that women created as architects designers and clients at a time when they were gaining increasing political and social status in a male world Through a series of case studies Women's Places Architecture and Design 1860 1960 examines in detail the professional and domestic spaces created by women who had money and the opportunity to achieve their ideal Set against a background of accepted notions of modernity relating to design and architecture of the late 19th and early 20th centuries this book provides a fascinating insight into women's social aspirations and identities. It offers new information and new interpretations in the study of gender material culture and the built environment in the period 1860-1960.

A Woman's Touch Isabelle Anscombe, 1985 For centuries women have organized, supervised and labored in the households they ran but only during the last hundred years or so did they begin to have a say in how homes and furnishings were designed. Now in this richly illustrated survey of design and design movements from the 1860s to the 1980s women gain their rightful place in the history of design. Isabelle Anscombe illuminates the contributions of women to the Arts and Crafts Movement in Britain, the Glasgow School of Art and the Bauhaus school and discusses the great interior decorators of the 1920s and 1930s. Drawing on original interviews and on social and art history, Anscombe shows how the textiles, tableware and furniture created by designers such as Vanessa Bell, Sonia Delaunay and Elsie de Wolfe revolutionized ideas about the form and function of the home. Thoroughly researched and written with both wit and authority, A Woman's Touch is an important addition to the literature of design.

From publisher's description: Feminist Visual Culture Fiona Carson, Claire Pajaczowska, 2016-05-06 Visual culture is all around us: television, dance, film, fashion, painting, sculpture, installation and fine art are only a few of its many faces. Feminist Visual Culture looks at feminist theory, the role of women and the contribution of women artists to the world of visual culture. This substantial introduction provides an overview of visual culture and of the origins of feminist practice. In the volume's three sections: Fine Art, Design and Mass Media, the authors discuss the visual media specific to that area, incorporating wider issues such as class, culture and ethnicity. Each chapter is written by a woman working in a different field of visual culture. A topical and comprehensive introduction, Feminist Visual Culture will be a valuable tool for readers and students in women's studies, visual studies and media studies.

American Women Modernists Robert Henri, Marian Wardle, Sarah Burns, Brigham Young University. Museum of Art, 2005 The seven essays included in this volume move beyond the famed Ashcan School to recover the lesser-known work of Robert Henri's women students. The contributors, who include well-known scholars of art history, American studies and cultural studies, demonstrate how these women participated in the modernizing of women's roles during this era.

Designing Gender Sarah Elsie Baker, 2023-12-28 This book offers an ideal first step for designers looking to disrupt contemporary design practice by challenging gender inequality. Drawing on feminist and queer theory, it outlines key concepts and applies them to a broad spectrum of design activity. By developing feminist design approaches and methods, it provides a practical resource for designers wanting to make a change. Designing Gender covers essential topics including definitions of sex, gender and sexuality; histories of women in design; parity in professional design practice; diversity of users; non-binary design approaches; and sustainable and equitable futures. Filled with examples from around the world, the book recognises the culturally specific nature of gendered experience. Interviews with designers working in a diverse range of fields, including user experience design, visual communication, interaction design and critical design, highlight the challenges and opportunities involved in designing a more equitable society. Each chapter showcases key methods and tools and culminates in hands on activities

Rethinking Design and Interiors Shashi Caan, 2011-08-22 The world and the people living in it are increasingly and rapidly being affected by environmental and technological changes It is imperative that the design profession addresses these developments with a new way of thinking This book points the way for the design of interiors in this newly complex world and will be indispensable for students practitioners and theoreticians The book is divided into four chapters that explore aspects of the human experience of the interior from man s earliest search for shelter to an outline of past and current thinking on design psychology and well being An epilogue looks at such future concerns as population growth and sustainability and suggests how the design profession can confront these challenges Rethinking Design and Interiors is a fascinating exploration of how art and science can come together for the benefit of those who inhabit the built environment

The Mediation of Ornament Oleg Grabar, 2023-10-17 How ornamentation enables a direct and immediate encounter between viewers and art objects Based on universal motifs ornamentation occurs in many artistic traditions though it reaches its most expressive tangible and unique form in the art of the Islamic world The Mediation of Ornament shares a veteran art historian s love for the sheer sensuality of Islamic ornamentation but also uses this art to show how ornament serves as a consistent intermediary between viewers and artistic works from all cultures and periods Oleg Grabar analyzes early and medieval Islamic objects ranging from frontispieces in Yemen to tilework in the Alhambra and compares them to Western examples treating all pieces as testimony of the work life thought and emotion experienced in one society The Mediation of Ornament is essential reading for admirers of Islamic art and anyone interested in the ways of perceiving and understanding the arts more broadly
