THE ABBESS of CASTRO

And Other Stories

Translated by
C. K. SCOTT MONCRIEFF

IN this volume of stories we find Stendhal at his most interesting point. He is writing stories with Italian themes: the Italy which he knew so well. He spent much time in Italy living in Milan for six years. In these five tales you will find literature at its best: study observation and imagination. Stendhal was the superman of his day, one who bothered little with moral obligations, and his Italian stories he interprets in his own peculiar mood and style.
