Records and Briefs California (State)., Under 2 flags George P. Richardson, Ph.D., 2013-07 As I think back my life had gone full circle from the Midwest to Germany and back to the Midwest to California In summing up my experiences both in Germany and in the United States I can say that as a youngster I was anti Bolshevik in Germany in my service in the Counterintelligence Corp and I was anti Bolshevik in the United States Throughout it all there was one constant that I can claim to be mine and that was my involvement with youth be it in the Hitler Youth be it in the Jung Volk be it in the schools that I was attending be it with horses and later with dogs and on sailboats I have only met wonderful people If people should turn out to be not so wonderful I would quickly disengage myself from their presence In my teaching I followed the Confucius dictum I will teach one third and hope that those I am teaching will make clear unto themselves the remaining two thirds or I will not teach them again In public education there was no way one could carry that out In the Equestrian field I can say that I had two outstanding students Carol Hancock and Kay Switzer who won the California State Equestrian Championships in different years at the Cow Palace in San Francisco Carol was a walk trot i e a gaited rider and Kay Switzer was a Hunter Jumper It was a fantastic experience working with young people I have also told the young people not to worry about people not knowing them but that they should worry about whether or not they are worth knowing Another dictum that I repeated again based on the Chinese scholar is If you have made a mistake and do not set about to correct it you have already made another mistake It is amazing how much kids remember those little quips Two decades after I had left L A High I was in Cerritos at a service station when a Black gentleman came to me and he asked Excuse me sir are you not Mr Richardson who taught at L A High I said Yes I am He said Sir I will never forget you To me as a teacher that was the best compliment one could ever have At this point in my life I am now sailing an Ericson 27 The nice thing about that boat is that I can stand up straight in the main cabin I can go from the main cabin into the enclosed head without having to stoop down I have a self furling headsail and I have all sorts of reefing gizmos gimmicks on the mainsail and a Yanmar Diesel So that at my age and I am over 84 I can enjoy the days that remain with my faithful little Schnauzer Champion K B s Sing Noel von Stocker aka Noelle I am in awe of God I do not think that God is particularly loving and kind to people There are billions of people whose prayers if I am right he cannot listen to Hildburg and I are of the conviction that in that time beyond we are going to meet again and be together If there is no hereafter then that which she and I experienced together every moment of that life I had with this wonderful lady was yes Under Two Flags the German Flag and the American Flag from the horse to the canine to the seagulls I have no regrets I thank my sister Florence for the support she has showed me in the closing months of Hildburg's life I was singularly blessed California School Law Frank Kemerer, Peter Sansom, 2013-10-02 Now in its third edition California School Law is the only comprehensive source discussing how federal and state law affects the day to day operation of the state's traditional public charter and private schools While the book is comprehensive the authors have written it for a broad audience California School Law has become a coveted desk top reference for administrators governing board members school attorneys union leaders and policymakers It also has been widely adopted as a classroom textbook in educational administration and education law classes The first chapter provides an explanation of the legal framework within which California schooling takes place and key players at the state district and school level Ensuing chapters examine student attendance and truancy curriculum law employment law teacher and student rights of expression the school and religion students with disabilities student discipline privacy and search and seizure and legal liability in both state and federal court Also included are chapters on unions and collective bargaining educational finance issues and racial and gender discrimination Appendices provide a glossary of legal terminology an explanation of how to find and read legislative enactments and judicial decisions and a list of sources for accessing law The book's table of contents is included on this website Law never stands still To keep current with changing legal precedent the authors maintain a cumulative update for the third edition at www.californiaschoollaw.org *California.
