Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children's literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e.g. author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e.g. semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations

Aesthetic Approaches To Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05 This work provides students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used to examine aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature Contemporary literary theories discussed include semiotics hermeneutics structuralism narratology psychoanalysis reader response feminist and postcolonial theory each adjusted to suit the specifics of children's literature

Global Children's Literature in the College Classroom Sara Austin, Tanja Nathanael, 2023-05-22 Global Children's Literature in the College Classroom explores the importance of children's literature as a pedagogical resource in any college course It can be used to introduce a complex topic give students a glimpse into a specific culture or expand the way students think about education and teaching Global children's literature is particularly useful in language classrooms education programs and classes that discuss globalism and colonialism This book includes fifteen essays representing fifteen countries and eight languages divided into four sections The first section of essays Across the University looks at children's literature in non traditional settings including British literature and multicultural studies which considers what children's literature specifically brings to these courses The second section Borders and Crossings examines how children's literature defines or defies political and cultural separations The third section Childhood Studies and Education considers the importance of global children's literature in education classrooms as a way of promoting diversity and inclusion The fourth section Non English Texts and Texts in Translation focuses on the use of children's literature to teach language and folklore traditions in France Russia and Italy The essay that closes this section discusses using children's literature to teach translation skills at the University of Taipei Edinburgh Companion to Children's Literature Clementine Beauvais, 2018-02-16 Introduces you to the promises and problems of Charles Taylor's thought in major contemporary debates Engagements with Children's and Young Adult Literature Lydia Kokkola, Sara Van den Bossche, 2025-07-10 Engagements with Children's and Young Adult Literature offers an accessible guide to studying Children's and Young Adult CYA literature teaching readers how to read critically This book introduces this dynamic field encompassing diverse genres audiences and interpretations Lydia Kokkola and Sara Van den Bossche examine its historical cultural and ideological dimensions while addressing adult perspectives and the ambivalence of child agency Tools for critical analysis genre specific insights and emerging research trends enhance readers engagement with CYA literature and its broader implications The book approaches CYA literature from various complementary angles Historical the influence of religious and philosophical convictions on its development Thematic commonly occurring genres and types of CYA literature such as realism versus speculative fiction Narratological plot time tension character and setting Visual the main principles for reading images in picturebooks graphic novels and comics Ideological power dynamics and common constructions of childhood Social questions of identity politics related to race gender and orientation and offers tools to read critically Engagements with Children's and Young Adult Literature brings together established theories and new perspectives on CYA literature combining engagement with theory with hands on analytical interpretive and methodological tools for budding scholars of CYA literature Exploring a diverse range of writing this dynamic introduction is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of this vibrant field Power, Voice and Subjectivity in Literature for Young Readers Maria Nikolajeva, 2009-09-10 Looking at key works from the eighteenth century to the present Nikolajeva explores topics such as genre gender crossvocalization species and picturebook images in order to demonstrate how a balance is maintained between the two opposite inherent goals of children's literature to empower and to educate the child The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture Claudia Nelson, Elisabeth Wesseling, Andrea Mei-Ying Wu, 2023-11-30 Focusing on significant and cutting edge preoccupations within children's literature scholarship The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture presents a comprehensive overview of print digital and electronic texts for children aged zero to thirteen as forms of world literature participating in a panoply of identity formations Offering five distinct sections this volume Familiarizes students and beginning scholars with key concepts and methodological resources guiding contemporary inquiry into children's literature Describes the major media formats and genres for texts expressly addressing children Considers the production distribution and valuing of children's books from an assortment of historical and contemporary perspectives highlighting context as a driver of content Maps how children's texts have historically presumed and prescribed certain identities on the part of their readers sometimes addressing readers who share some part of the author's identity sometimes seeking to educate the reader about a presumed other and in recent decades increasingly foregrounding identities once lacking visibility and voice Explores the historical evolutions and trans regional contacts and inter connections in the long process of the formation of global children's literature highlighting issues such as retranslation transnationalism transculturality and new digital formats for considering cultural crossings and renegotiations in the production of children's literature Methodically presented and contextualized this volume is an engaging introduction to this expanding and multifaceted field

Literature's Children Louise Joy, 2019-02-21 Literature's Children offers a new way of thinking about how literature for children functions didactically It analyzes the nature of the practical critical activity which the child reader carries out emphasizing what the child does to the text rather than what he or she receives from it Through close readings of a range of works for children which have shaped our understanding of what children's literature entails including works by Isaac Watts John Newbery Kate Greenaway E Nesbit Kenneth Grahame J R R Tolkien and Malcolm Saville it demonstrates how the critical child resists the processes of idealization in operation in and through such texts Bringing into dialogue ideas from literary theory and the philosophy of education drawing in particular on the work of the philosopher John Dewey it provides a compelling new account of the complex relations between literary aesthetics and literary didacticism
