Aesthetics Empathy And Education:

Aesthetics, Empathy and Education Boyd White, Tracie Costantino, 2013 Empathy must be part of education because knowledge without it is incomplete Swanger Essays in Aesthetic Education 1990 Aesthetics Empathy and Education pursues Swanger's assertion in myriad ways The text is divided into four sections The first addresses research methodology from widely differing perspectives The second section scrutinizes research again this time addressing the self as the research subject The third section takes a more specifically philosophical approach to the topic challenging some underlying assumptions about education and empathy Finally the fourth section looks at classroom practice Aesthetics Empathy and Education is essential reading for pre service teachers graduate students and instructors Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy D. C. Phillips, 2014-06-06 The two volume Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy introduces readers to theories that have stood the test of time and those that have provided the historical foundation for the best of contemporary educational theory and practice Drawing together a team of international scholars this invaluable reference examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them and presents them in the context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses The Moral Work of Teaching and Teacher Education

Matthew N. Sanger, Richard D. Osguthorpe, 2015-04-25 What makes teaching a moral endeavor How can we prepare classroom practitioners for engaging in that moral endeavor in meaningful and effective ways This volume brings together leading scholar who draw upon both their academic expertise and substantial wisdom of practice to offer a variety of perspectives on the challenge of preparing today's teachers for the moral work of teaching Book Features Examines the role that teacher preparation and development can play in addressing the moral work of teaching Highlights the work of leading scholars from educational psychology educational philosophy and teacher education Provides compelling insights for identifying the next generation of our nation's best teachers Contributors Wolfgang Althof Karen D Benson Marvin W Berkowitz Donald Blumenfeld Jones Elizabeth Campbell Julie Canniff Mary Crawford Lana Daly Rebecca Evers Cathie Fallona Gary Fenstermacher Anthony Holter Lisa E Johnson Daniel Lapsley Darcia Narvaez Virginia Navarro Larry Nucci Joy Pelton Virginia Richardson Don Senneville David Shields Barbara Stengel Jonatha W Vare Marilyn Watson Matthew Sanger is associate professor of Educational Foundations in the College of Education at Idaho State University Richard Osguthorpe is associate professor and chair of the Department of Curriculum Instruction and Foundational Studies at Boise State University The editors and contributors help us appreciate that many teachers come to the work precisely because of abiding moral commitments to help others to make a difference in the lives of the young to give something back to society But they also help us see how crucial it is to give candidates systematic support in coming to grips with the meaning of these commitments and how to translate them into pedagogical action for the well being of students and society alike From the Foreword by David T Hansen This book sheds light into the core of professional morality It should be a must for each student teacher and for each practitioner around school life Fritz Oser professor of education and educational psychology University of Fribourg Switzerland Let us not forget that teaching is inherently moral work Sanger and Osguthorpe explain what this means for teachers and teacher educators The combination of conceptual analysis and cases of teacher education practice make this book a valuable resource and welcome antidote to the current preoccupation with test scores Sharon Feiman Nemser Brandeis University Narratives and Reflections in Music Education Tawnya D. Smith, Karin S. Hendricks, 2020-02-03 This volume offers chapters written by some of the most respected narrative and qualitative inquiry writers in the field of music education The authorship and scope are international and the chapters advance the philosophical theoretical and methodological bases of narrative inquiry in music education and the arts The book contains two sections each with a specific aim The first is to continue and expand upon dialogue regarding narrative inquiry in music education emphasizing how narrative involves the art of listening to and hearing others whose voices are often unheard The chapters invite music teachers and scholars to experience and confront music education stories from multiple perspectives and worldviews inviting an international readership to engage in critical dialogue with and about marginalized voices in music The second section focuses on ways in which narrative might be represented beyond the printed page such as with music film photography and performative pieces This section includes philosophical discussions about arts based and aesthetic inquiry as well as examples of such work Aesthetic Literacies in School and Work Georgina Barton, 2023-01-01 This book argues the importance of aesthetic literacies in learning and teaching in schools for future work The study of aesthetics is critical in today's learning due to the increasingly complex ways in which we communicate meaning such as through the presentation of texts and objects The book provides educators pre service teachers and students an in depth understanding of aesthetic literacies in innovative spaces including in philosophical literature environmental spaces curricula and classrooms Using various theoretical frames from both the arts and literacy fields this book shares relevant pedagogies theorisations and contexts where aesthetic literacies are at the core of learning It emphasises how improved knowledge of aesthetics and quality experiences in beauty are vital in aiding students and young children develop the necessary resilience and tolerance needed in today's uncertain world Dance Education and Responsible Citizenship Karen Schupp, 2019-05-28 Originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Dance Education this collection brings together a number of insightful chapters which explore themes relating to responsible citizenship within dance education Presenting research scholarship experiences and pedagogical approaches from national and international contexts and diverse educational settings the chapters included in this book demonstrate how the study of dance requires students to develop a clear sense of self and group responsibility Including high level contributions from a range of researchers educators and dance instructors the volume investigates how research and instruction can contribute to building communities and ensure that dance education reacts to shifting social political and cultural norms Responsible citizenship and civic engagement are examined in relation to course content pedagogical approaches systemic practices and cultural assumptions This valuable collection of diverse and insightful chapters will be of great interest to researchers post graduate academics teachers and instructors in the fields of dance and teacher education
