Africa Diversity Development Routledge Perspectives Ebook:

Africa Tony Binns, Alan Dixon, E. L. Nel, 2012 1 Africa continuity and change 2 Africa's peoples 3 African environments 4 Rural Africa 5 Urban Africa 6 Health 7 Conflict and post conflict Africa 8 African Economies 9 Developing Africa 10 What future for Africa EBOOK: International and Comparative Human Resource Management Graham

Hollinshead, 2009-11-16 International and Comparative Human Resource Management offers students a clear and contemporary introduction to issues in managing the human aspects of international organisations International Human Resource Management IHRM has grown in significance as a field of study over the past decade due to the internationalisation of business freedom of movement of labour and capital and international regulation of employment matters This new book takes a fresh and distinctive approach combining analysis of international HR policy and practice with detailed exposition of contexts and systems of HR in a selection of developed and developing countries India and

Africa's Partnership Ajay Kumar Dubey, Aparajita Biswas, 2015-09-21 This book demonstrates the changing dynamics of India's engagement with Africa focusing on trade investment official development assistance capacity building activities and the diaspora It also examines its impact at the economic political and societal levels with respect to governance democratic structures education and health India has competitive edge of historical goodwill and it is one of the most important countries engaging Africa in the 21st Century For Africa India has emerged from an aid recipient country to a major aid provider but on a basis of partnership model The book provides a contemporary analysis and assessment of Indo Africa relations bringing together contributions from the Global South and from the North that explore whether the relationship is truly mutually beneficial Research Handbook on Child Soldiers Mark A. Drumbl, Justine C. Barrett, 2019 Child soldiers remain poorly understood and inadequately protected despite significant media attention and many policy initiatives This Research Handbook aims to redress this troubling gap It offers a reflective fresh and nuanced review of the complex issue of child soldiering The Handbook brings together scholars from six continents diverse experiences and a broad range of disciplines Along the way it unpacks the life cycle of youth and militarization from recruitment to demobilization to return to civilian life The overarching aim of the Handbook is to render the invisible visible the contributions map the unmapped and chart new directions Challenging prevailing assumptions and conceptions the Research Handbook on Child Soldiers focuses on adversity but also capacity emphasising the resilience humanity and potentiality of children affected rather than afflicted by armed conflict EBOOK: Experiencing Intercultural Communication: An Introduction Judith Martin, Thomas

Nakayama, G.P. van Rhee, van Oudtshoorn, Paul Schutte, 2013-07-16 The new Southern African edition of this popular introductory textbook offers students a practical and accessible framework for developing their intercultural communication skills It provides a global perspective on intercultural communication while allowing students to contextualise their knowledge with relevant examples applications and perspectives Recognising that students in Southern Africa come from diverse cultural ethnic and linguistic backgrounds it provides discussion of issues and perspectives they can apply to everyday life and to broader contexts Transnational Migration and the New Subjects of Work Banu

Özkazanç-Pan,2019-09-26 In an increasingly globalized world mobility is a new defining feature of our lives livelihoods and work experiences This book is a first in utilising transnational migration studies as a new theoretical framework in management and organization studies Ozkazanc Pan presents a much needed new concept for understanding people work and organizations in a world on the move while attending to growing inequality associated with work in changing societies

Social Work - Perceptions for a New Era Helena Rocha,2024-12-04 Social Work Perceptions for a New Era focuses on resilience well being and justice in social work reflecting a diverse and innovative approach In an era marked by rapid technological advancements evolving societal norms and unprecedented global challenges the field of social work stands at a critical crossroads This book brings together diverse perspectives and approaches to address the multifaceted dimensions of social work in the contemporary world It illuminates the evolving view of social work highlighting its contribution to fostering resilience promoting wellbeing and advocating for justice EBOOK: Cognitive Psychology 2e Kenneth Gilhooly,Fiona

Lyddy, Frank Pollick, Sandra Buratti,2020-12-22 EBOOK Cognitive Psychology 2e Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe Rodwell Makombe,2021-10-01 Cultural Texts of Resistance in Zimbabwe explores how ordinary citizens appropriate and deploy cultural texts such as internet memes songs political cartoons and social media discussions as vehicles to contest hegemonic narratives of the state and insert alternative ways of imagining the future of the nation This book is a timely attempt to examine the multiple and complex dimensions of resistance in post millennial Zimbabwe through analysing different cultural productions It centres the voices of ordinary Zimbabweans by examining popular cultural texts that reflect their experiences and ways of living within the Zimbabwean crisis of the post 2000 period The book argues that subversive cultural texts have become important tools that ordinary citizens appropriate to challenge the repressive political environment and imagine different ways of writing the nation The book brings a fresh perspective to ongoing discussions on how popular cultural texts contribute to the narration of the nation especially in the context of crisis Green Transitional

Justice Rachel Killeen, Lauren Dempster,2025-06-30 This book rethinks the boundaries of transitional justice urging scholars and practitioners to confront the often overlooked nexus between mass violence and ecological harm Through an in depth analysis of the field s limitations such as its anthropocentric legalism neocolonial practices and alignment with neoliberalism the book critiques the historical marginalisation of Nature in transitional justice discourse and practice It argues that ignoring environmental harm not only undermines the possibility of holistic justice but also perpetuates structural violence and inequality In response the book sketches a greener transitional justice integrating principles from environmental justice Indigenous knowledge systems and ecocentric perspectives It explores the possibilities of recognising Nature as a victim of mass violence adapting existing mechanisms to incorporate environmental harm and fostering transformative approaches premised on the interdependence of human and ecological well being This book is written for students researchers and practitioners of transitional justice and fields related to conflict transformation peacebuilding environmental protection and development
