Romances of Real Life ... Leigh Hunt, 1889 Representing Difference in the Medieval and Modern Orientalist Romance Amy Burge, 2017-02-14 This book the first full length cross period comparison of medieval and modern literature offers cutting edge research into the textual and cultural legacy of the Middle Ages a significant and growing area of scholarship At the juncture of literary cultural and gender studies and capitalizing on a renewed interest in popular western representations of the Islamic east this book proffers innovative case studies on representations of cross religious and cross cultural romantic relationships in a selection of late medieval and twenty first century Orientalist popular romances Comparing the tropes characterization and settings of these literary phenomena and focusing on gender religion and ethnicity the study exposes the historical roots of current romance representations of the east advancing research in Orientalism neo medievalism and medieval cultural studies Fundamentally Representing Difference invites a closer look at medieval and modern popular attitudes towards the east as represented in romance and the kinds of solutions proposed for its apparent problems The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Cultural and Intellectual History, 2013 Over 600 A Z articles on a wide range of topics in American cultural and intellectual History Explores American cultural and intellectual history from the colonial period to the present day Annotated bibliographies to highlight the major works in the field Expands and updates The Oxford Companion to United States History Crash Course in Readers' Advisory Cynthia Orr, 2014-12-05 One of the key services librarians provide is helping readers find books they ll enjoy This crash course will furnish you with the basic practical information you need to excel at readers advisory RA for adults and teens The question can you recommend a good book can be one of the most daunting you face notwithstanding the fact that recommender tools are ubiquitous Often uncertainty arises because although librarians are called on to perform such services daily readers advisory is a skill set in which most have no formal training This guide will remedy that It is built around understanding books reading and readers and will quickly show you how to identify reading preferences and advise patrons effectively You ll learn about multiple RA approaches such as genre appeal features and reading interests and about essential tools that can help with RA Plus you ll discover tips to help you keep up with this ever changing field There is no other professional book that covers the full spectrum of skills needed to perform the RA service that is in such great demand in libraries of all kinds Helping readers find what they want is a sure way to serve patrons and build your library s brand You will come away from this easy to understand crash course with the solid background you need to do both Librarians in Fiction Grant Burns, 1998-03-01 The depictions of librarians in over 374 novels short stories and plays in English are the focus of this fully annotated reference work Librarians no less than other professionals want to know how they are depicted in fiction The stereotypical or fictional librarian the one with the bun comfortable shoes and dour demeanor may be fading but fiction teaches a lesson about public perception Actually story librarians are often described as adaptable knowledgeable shrewd tactful tender and intelligent traits that the authors and by extension the readers look for in their librarians All entries include complete bibliographic data followed by a lengthy annotation that discusses how the librarian fits into the story and gives insight to how he or she is depicted Title and author indexes are provided for further utility Shapes Friends Rochelle Rabouin,2009-01-12 DIFFERENT SHAPES DIFFERENT COLORS DIFFERENT CULTURES BEST FRIENDS BUT FOR HOW LONG A circle a square a triangle and a parallelepiped are best friends They want to play a game together BUT the circle is the only one that can roll This early picture book is a lesson for everyone about how anyone from anywhere can find anything in common anytime The story connects to Geometry shape recognition and shape function Math counting color recognition life skills listen response peace building team work and emphasizes multiculturalism Handbook of Black Librarianship Andrew P. Jackson,Marva L. DeLoach,Michele Fenton,2024-12-15 Winner of the BCALA 2025 Literary Award for Outstanding Contribution to Publishing As Dr Josey and Ms DeLoach wrote in their Introduction to the second edition of The Handbook of Black Librarianship In designing the second edition of The Handbook of Black Librarianship the editors felt that this work should be a reference tool related to the various aspects of African Americans in librarianship and their work in libraries That first edition covered issues faced by black library professionals in the various fields of librarianship organizations formed black library collections and books resources and other areas of progress The second edition published twenty three years later highlighted more current events in Black librarianship early and contemporary library organizations vital issues African American resources discussions on and about librarianship a focus on health librarianship and information resources and education It has now been another twenty two years since the last edition and time to reflect on various aspects of African Americans in our profession as well as the advancements over the past two and a half decades and to review those issues African Americans still face and how modern technological advancements have impacted our profession and the lives of Black librarians This third edition s coverage includes Pioneers and Landmark Episodes A Chronology of Events in Black Librarianship African American Forerunners in Librarianship Modern Day Black Library Organizations Vital Issues in Black Librarianship Library Service to Our Communities Library Technology and Black Librarianship Pearls from Our Retirees Issues in Diversity Inclusion and Multiculturalism African Library Resources and Education Banned Books and Significant Books and Periodicals for Black Collections Romance and Rights Alex Lubin,2009-07 A study of the tensions between the private and public realms of interracial relationships Great Books About Things Kids Love Kathleen Odean,2008-12-18 BOOKS THAT TURN CHILDREN INTO LIFE LONG READERS Most children want to read a book because it s about something they love or are curious about dinosaurs magic tricks ballerinas sports secret codes and a host of other topics Now with this unique book Kathleen Odean current chair of the Newberry Award committee and author of Great Books for Girls and Great Books for Boys makes it easy for parents and teachers to satisfy a child s individual cravings for good reading on any subject Inside you ll discover More than 750 books divided into 55 categories from Airplanes to Zoos

Professional appraisals that are balanced intelligent and fun to read Stimulating book related activities and helpful tips for parents Whether the format is picture book poetry fiction or nonfiction here are wonderful selections like Why Does the Cat Do That and Exploring the Titanic tried and true characters from the beloved aardvarks Arthur and D W to the hilarious Junie B Jones and the courageous Harry Potter new heroes and heroines to cheer for such as Katherine Paterson s Princess Miranda from The Wide Awake Princess and the exciting Jack Black from Jack Black and the Ship of Thieves by Carol Hughes Great Books About Things Kids Love creates a book rich environment in which the habit of reading can take hold and flourish for a lifetime From the Trade Paperback edition Love, Liberation, and Escaping Slavery Barbara McCaskill, 2015 The spectacular 1848 escape of William and Ellen Craft 1824 1900 1826 1891 from slavery in Macon Georgia is a dramatic story in the annals of American history Ellen who could pass for white disguised herself as a gentleman slaveholder William accompanied her as his master s devoted slave valet both traveled openly by train steamship and carriage to arrive in free Philadelphia on Christmas Day In Love Liberation and Escaping Slavery Barbara McCaskill revisits this dual escape and examines the collaborations and partnerships that characterized the Crafts activism for the next thirty years in Boston where they were on the run again after the passage of the 1850 Fugitive Slave Law in England and in Reconstruction era Georgia McCaskill also provides a close reading of the Crafts only book their memoir Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom published in 1860 Yet as this study of key moments in the Crafts public lives argues the early print archive newspapers periodicals pamphlets legal documents fills gaps in their story by providing insight into how they navigated the challenges of freedom as reformers and educators and it discloses the transatlantic British and American audiences changing reactions to them By discussing such events as the 1878 court case that placed William s character and reputation on trial this book also invites readers to reconsider the Crafts triumphal story as one that is messy unresolved and bittersweet An important episode in African American literature history and culture this will be essential reading for teachers and students of the slave narrative genre and the transatlantic antislavery movement and for researchers investigating early American print culture
