African Philosophy Théophile Obenga, 2004 Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century Peter Adamson, Chike Jeffers, 2025-03-07 In this latest instalment of the series A History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers delve into the fascinating world of Africana Philosophy. Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century is the first of two volumes in the History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps series to bring readers the story of Africana philosophy. This diverse topic is defined as philosophy emerging from and distinctively related to Africa or the African diaspora. The story starts at the very beginning by asking what it would mean to engage philosophically with evidence left by prehistoric peoples of Africa and proceeds to discuss the philosophical traditions of ancient Egypt, late ancient and early modern Ethiopia and Islamic philosophy in West Africa. A number of chapters then explore the idea of philosophy in African oral traditions, considering the methodological debates that have raged between African philosophers like John Mbiti, Paulin Hountondji and Henry Odera Oruka. Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers also consider philosophical responses to the situation brought about by the transatlantic slave trade and the early colonization of Africa. Starting from early figures like Anton Wilhelm Amo and Phillis Wheatley and the ideas that drove the Haitian Revolution, extensive discussion is then given to Africana philosophy of the nineteenth century. The incendiary ideas of David Walker, the nuanced rhetoric of Frederick Douglass and the clashing approaches of Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois are among the highlights here. Significant attention is given to female thinkers like Maria W. Stewart, Sojourner Truth, Anna Julia Cooper and Ida B. Wells. The coverage is also geographically diverse, with chapters on figures who worked not only in Africa and the United States but also Brazil, Canada, Britain, France and the Caribbean.

The Mvengian Vision of Anthropological Pauperization Hermann-Habib Kibangou, 2022-09-15 In this book we pay particular attention to a son of Africa who opened up to reflection, research and armed himself with science to the teeth to restore to Africa without complacency or false modesty its true image. Engelbert Mveng. Our approach, which focuses solely on his theory of anthropological pauperization, can be in our humble opinion and probably is a path for philosophical reflection on the anthropological pauperization as a reflection of the African man of the present on his being there and on his becoming.

Libation Kimani S. K. Nehusi, 2015-12-28 This book concerns the origins, structure, purpose, meaning and significance of libation, developments and change within the ritual and its distribution in the African world. Libation is a liquid offering by and on behalf of all humanity, those living and those yet to be born, to ancestors, to the Creator, to other divinities and to the environment. Through this ritual, Africans affirm and re-establish their cosmic harmony, balance, interconnection and interdependence within, between and among humans, the environment, the spirit world and the Creator. The text connects the practice of libation throughout the prodigious time-space correlation occupied by the African experience of life, connects Africans to their social history and so to themselves across generations in different spaces and times. The methodology is at once both multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary. The methods and techniques of history linguistics cultural studies literature and other human sciences are deployed to develop a comprehensive reconstruction description and analysis of a ritual that has been antique for millennia but has never become antiquated Handbook of African American Psychology Helen A. continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references
