Afro-Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean

Debbie Lee-DiStefano, Luisa Marcela Ossa, 2018-11-27 Afro Asian Connections in Latin America and the Caribbean explores the connections between people of Asian and African descent in Latin America and the Caribbean Although their journeys started from different points of origin spanning two separate oceans their point of contact in this hemisphere brought them together under a hegemonic system that would treat these seemingly disparate continental ancestries as one Historically an overwhelming majority of people of African and Asian descent were brought to the Americas as sources of labor to uphold the plantation agrarian economies leading to complex relationships and interactions The contributions to this collection examine various aspects of these connections The authors bring to the forefront perspectives regarding history literature art and religion and engage how they are manifested in these Afro Asian relationships and interactions They investigate what has received little academic engagement outside the acknowledgement that there are groups who are of African and Asian descent In regard to their relationships with the dominant Europeanized center references to both groups typically only view them as singular entities What this interdisciplinary collection presents is a more cohesive approach that strives to place them at the center together and view their relationships in their historical

Revolutionary Masculinity and Racial Inequality Bonnie A. Lucero,2021-12-01 One of the most paradoxical aspects of Cuban history is the coexistence of national myths of racial harmony with lived experiences of racial inequality Here a historian addresses this issue by examining the ways soldiers and politicians coded their discussions of race in ideas of masculinity during Cuba s transition from colony to republic Cuban insurgents the author shows rarely mentioned race outright Instead they often expressed their attitudes toward racial hierarchy through distinctly gendered language revolutionary masculinity By examining the relationship between historical experiences of race and discourses of masculinity Lucero advances understandings about how racial exclusion functioned in a supposedly raceless society Revolutionary masculinity she shows outwardly reinforced the centrality of color blindness to Cuban ideals of manhood at the same time as it perpetuated exclusion of Cubans of African descent from positions of authority

Mexican Costumbrismo Mey-Yen Moriuchi,2018-04-03 The years following Mexican independence in 1821 were critical to the development of social racial and national identities The visual arts played a decisive role in this process of self definition Mexican Costumbrismo reorients current understanding of this key period in the history of Mexican art by focusing on a distinctive genre of painting that emerged between 1821 and 1890 costumbrismo In contrast to the neoclassical work favored by the Mexican academy costumbrista artists portrayed the quotidian lives of the lower to middle classes their clothes food dwellings and occupations Based on observations of similitude and difference costumbrista imagery constructed stereotypes of behavioral and biological traits associated with distinct racial and social classes In doing so Mey Yen Moriuchi argues these works engaged with notions of universality and difference contributed to the documentation and reification of social and racial types and transformed the way Mexicans saw themselves as well as how other nations saw them during a time of rapid change for all aspects of national identity Carefully researched and featuring more than thirty full color exemplary reproductions of period work Moriuchi s study is a provocative art historical examination of costumbrismo s lasting impact on Mexican identity and
