Afterlives Romantic Intermediality Intersection Frontiers:

Afterlives of Romantic Intermediality Leena Eilittä, Catherine Riccio-Berry, 2015-12-24 Afterlives of Romantic Intermediality addresses the manifold even global artistic developments that were initiated by European Romantics In the first section the contributors show how the rising perspective of intermediality was discussed in philosophical terms and adapted itself to Romantic literature and music In the second section the contributors show how post Romantic writers visual artists and composers have engaged with Romantic heritage By exploring primary works that range from European arts to Latin American literature these essays focus on the interdisciplinary developments that have emerged in literature music painting film architecture and video art Overall the contributions in this volume demonstrate that intermedial connections or sometimes the conscious lack of such connections embody intriguing aspects of modernity and postmodernity

Franz Liszt's Songs for Voice and Piano Małgorzata Gamrat, 2023-11-27 How does a Romantic composer approach the poetry he sets as raw material to be remade a pretext for self expression a sanctified artefact or a message to be illustrated with music In my book I examine Franz Liszt's songs for voice and piano which remain little known to scholars artists and music lovers alike The objective is to present Liszt's songs in all their complexity and diversity as well as identifying the key elements of the composer's broadly understood song writing technique both those that make him unique and those that relate him to the European tradition This approach also makes it possible to shed light on a major though previously neglected aspect of the composer's workshop namely his work with the poetic text which to Liszt was just as important as the musical setting

Assembly and its Other in German Romantic Literature and Thought Robert E. Mottram, Christopher R. Clason, 2022-10-15 This collection of essays turns on a shift in Romantic studies from viewing wholeness as an absolute value to critiquing it as a limiting construction Wholeness and its concomitant sense of harmony rather than a natural given is a construct that was assembled and disassembled theorized and criticized by diverse authors and artists in a wide variety of disciplines and socio historical contexts and instrumentalized for diverse purposes The plurality of these constructions that Goethe's Urpflanze for example is not synonymous with Friedrich Schlegel's universal progressive poetry is but one manifestation of how assembly strives but fails to be absolute The other of assembly referenced in the title suggests two divergent but inseparable tendencies firstly how a construction can take on the appearance of a natural given and secondly how assemblages of wholeness harbor within themselves their own principle of disarticulation These two tendencies underlie the inexhaustible character of Romantic gatherings As a construction passes itself off as nature the natural fails to account for itself as a whole The scope of this volume encompasses the establishment mapping and interrogation of assembly and its other in German Romanticism through interdisciplinary studies on literature aesthetics philosophy drama music synaesthesia mathematics science and exploration List of contributors Beate Allert Frederick Burwick Alexis B Smith Margaret Strair Christina Weiler Joshua Wilner
