Slessarev,2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Hidden Handshake Aleš

Debeljak,2004-09-27 The Hidden Handshake uses four distinct yet intertwined essays to address the questions surrounding our notions of citizenship national identity and cosmopolitan belonging The violent disintegration of Yugoslavia and the undercurrent of EU enlargement stand out as two contrasting movements that highlight the importance of having a national identification while also defying it to avoid both the rigidity of nationalist exclusivism and the blithe nonsense of global citizenship Through the exploration of sociohistorical material and artistic visions as well as the author's layered identity as a Slovene a Yugoslav a Central European and a European Aleš Debeljak tries to show that it is possible to remain faithful to geography history and community even as one fosters links to global cultural movements Not surprisingly the book itself shares some of this hybrid identity It uses not only theoretical concepts and empirical data but also historical sketches on art national life and society along with poetic autobiographical reminiscences and personal anecdotes Ultimately the book calls for an adoption of liberal nationalism which is commensurate with democratic order and for a more ecumenical understanding of artistic visions that does not discriminate on the grounds of one's place of origin A Handbook to

Post-Yugoslav States Igor Štiks,2015-07-30 Between 1914 and the present day the political makeup of the Balkans has relentlessly changed following unpredictable shifts of international and internal borders Between and across these borders various political communities were formed co existed and dis integrated By analysing one hundred years of modern citizenship in Yugoslavia and post Yugoslav states Igor Štiks shows that the concept and practice of citizenship is necessary to understand how political communities are made un made and re made He argues that modern citizenship is a tool that can be used for different and opposing goals from integration and re unification to fragmentation and ethnic engineering The study of citizenship in the laboratory of the Balkans offers not only an original angle to narrate an alternative political history but also an insight into the fine mechanics and repeating glitches of modern politics applicable to multinational states in the European Union and beyond

By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki, 2002 By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki's first book of poetry overwhelms and silences by virtue of its extremely austere beauty In highly wrought lyrics prose poems fragments of apocrypha and splintered efforts at song this volume is forceful and haunted by doubt Each intimate and restrained line is a glimpse at a wisdom that defies paraphrase each image carefully chosen and constructed Zawacki's language summons and invites and is almost menacing in its delicate intensity Weight is the syntax of filling empty spaces scalpels and expired tissue fall but fire rises to fever and sere While pursuing an explanation for the disappearance of God and for the denouement of a love affair and exploring the failure of language to compensate or console these poems maintain their sublime power and elegance
