Against Company Policy Love Odds:

Against All Odds Betty Ogiel Rubanga, 2017-02-09 This is a true story about a girl child who was orphaned and raised in the most neglected area of Uganda at that time Karamoja Her greatest dream was to get an education but she had to go through so many heartbreaking obstacles to achieve that dream The girl child grew up in settings that are unknown to those in the urban backgrounds in a region that was a no go area for the non natives then Amidst poverty and in a culture where girl child education is not a priority she managed to get to a university and of all Makerere University the oldest and premier institution of higher learning in East Africa The book is characterized by grit resilience and determination The author clearly brings out the ordeals she went through to gain an education in an environment that is not friendly to a girl child worse still for an orphan
