Against The Current Readings For Writers:

Boats Against the Current Lewis Perry, 2002-08 Boats Against the Current provides a fascinating account of how American culture emerged from the sheltered elitist world of the eighteenth century into the dynamic turbulent civilization that reached full bloom after the Civil War. The antebellum years were times of flux and change, years of a society rushing into the western wilds, muscular and ambitious yet haunted by uncertainty about its future and its past. Renowned scholar Lewis Perry begins his study with a fresh look at Andrew Jackson vividly recreating a time when Americans feeling their ties to the past disintegrating fostered a new fascination with history. Then Perry introduces us to the observations of such articulate foreign travelers as Alexis de Tocqueville and Fredrika Bremer. He deftly weaves together these writers' perspectives to provide a fascinating look at our emergent nation. Here too are the women of the cities and frontier, the peddlers, preachers, and showmen along with such writers as Hawthorne, Emerson, Whittier, and Parker. Perry brings these personalities and writings together to show us how early nineteenth century America saw itself in both its promise and its fears. Now available for the first time in paperback, Boats Against the Current offers a brilliant portrait of a society in the midst of change, expansion, and reflection about its own future and past. Written by one of our leading intellectual historians, it makes a major contribution to our understanding of the emergence of modern American culture. Against the Current Pamela J. Annas, Robert C. Rosen, 1998 This thematically arranged anthology offers a wide ranging and diverse collection of nonfiction readings to introduce readers to an exciting array of social issues relevant to their lives. It then provides suggestions for writing that include both analytical and creative exercises. Includes 86 readings about eleven socially relevant themes: Growing Up and Growing Older, Education, Mass Culture, Gender, Race, and Ethnicity, Money, Work, and Social Class, Science and Technology, Nature, The Environment, War, Protest, and Change, Art, and the Artist. Offers detailed study and discussion questions that take readers through each reading from start to finish, asking them to notice formal as well as thematic features. For those simply seeking a collection of non-fiction readings or for those looking to improve their writing and those involved in writing workshops. College Readings on Current Problems, 1925 The Writer's Market Aron M. Mathieu, 1949 Writing the Modern Family Roberta Garrett, 2021-01-29 Although a large body of work has emerged which addresses neoliberal representations of the family in other cultural forms such as parenting advice programmes, little has been written specifically on the family and contemporary literature. This book examines the growing body of autobiographical and fictional writing on family and parenting issues in Anglo-American culture from the late 1990s to the present day. The book looks closely at six distinct genres which have arisen during this time frame: the misery memoir, the mum's lit, popular novel, the maternal confessional, dad's lit, the dysfunctional domestic novel, and the family noir. Writing the Modern Family will examine the way these burgeoning areas of British and American writing respond to a neoliberal public discourse in which a parenting deficit rather than economic and structural disadvantage is responsible for increasing inequality in child welfare.

and achievement In evaluating these forms and their relationship to neoliberal culture the book will also consider the complex interrelationship between these genres Literary World; Choice Readings from the Best New Books, with Critical Reviews ,1888 The Champion of the faith against current infidelity, ed. by J. McCann James McCann,1882 Transitions in Writing ,2018-03-12 Transitions in Writing addresses the experiences of writers as they move between contexts of writing and juggle new and different demands Spelman Miller and Stevenson bring together research by scholars in a range of settings across the world who approach transition from different standpoints Transition is often conceived of as a change in setting coinciding with physical or temporal relocation such as between stages of an educational or professional career However writers also manage more local micro level transitions as they move between genres registers and rhetorical moves to meet the demands of the task The combination of both macro and micro level perspectives on transition offers a novel broad conception of the types of change a writer encounters and illustrates a range of methodological approaches appropriate to exploring such transitions Resources in Education ,1996-07 The New York Times Index ,2009
