At Home (Illustrated Edition) Bill Bryson, 2013-11-07 What does history really consist of Centuries of people quietly going about their daily business sleeping eating having sex endeavouring to get comfortable And where did all these normal activities take place At home This was the thought that inspired Bill Bryson to start a journey around the rooms of his own house an 1851 Norfolk rectory to consider how the ordinary things in life came to be And what he discovered are surprising connections to anything from the Crystal Palace to the Eiffel Tower from scurvy to body snatching from bedbugs to the Industrial Revolution and just about everything else that has ever happened resulting in one of the most entertaining and illuminating books ever written about the history of the way we live enhanced in this new edition by hundreds of stunning photographs and illustrations
