Barber, Paul T. Barber, 2012-01-02 Why were Prometheus and Loki envisioned as chained to rocks What was the Golden Calf Why are mirrors believed to carry bad luck How could anyone think that mortals like Perseus Beowulf and St George actually fought dragons since dragons don't exist Strange though they sound however these myths did not begin as fiction This absorbing book shows that myths originally transmitted real information about real events and observations preserving the information sometimes for millennia within nonliterate societies Geologists' interpretations of how a volcanic cataclysm long ago created Oregon's Crater Lake for example is echoed point for point in the local myth of its origin The Klamath tribe saw it happen and passed down the story for nearly 8 000 years We however have been literate so long that we've forgotten how myths encode reality Recent studies of how our brains work applied to a wide range of data from the Pacific Northwest to ancient Egypt to modern stories reported in newspapers have helped the Barbers deduce the characteristic principles by which such tales both develop and degrade through time Myth is in fact a quite reasonable way to convey important messages orally over many generations although reasoning back to the original events is possible only under rather specific conditions Our oldest written records date to 5 200 years ago but we have been speaking and mythmaking for perhaps 100 000 This groundbreaking book points the way to restoring some of that lost history and teaching us about human storytelling

From Head to Hand David Levi Strauss, 2010-02-11 In his third book Strauss delves into the mysterious process whereby an idea is born in the mind and materialized through the hand in the expression of an artwork How exactly does this happen It's a question so basic an act so fundamental to art making that it has rarely received attention It makes an ideal topic for Strauss a writer with an exceptional ability to animate art's philosophical dimensions in a clear persuasive manner During this time when craft and the direct manipulation of materials by the artist appear to be in eclipse Strauss comes to their defense in a spirited cri de cœur Featuring over 35 illustrations the book examines a wide variety of media and individual examples It explores the works of sculptors Martin Puryear Ursula von Rydingsvard and Donald Lipski painters Leon Golub and Ron Gorchov and writers Robert Duncan Robert Kelly Guy Davenport John Berger and Leo Steinberg In addition there are essays on Joseph Beuys's 7000 Oaks in Ireland contemporary Haida carvers Reg Davidson and Jim Hart Cecilia Vicuña's memory of the fingers and the influence of curators Harald Szeemann and Walter Hopps on the staging of contemporary art exhibitions Known primarily for his writings on photography and politics Strauss here focuses on the least mediated arts painting sculpture and writing His claims are supported by a series of close readings which succeed in recovering the immediacy of the hand and revitalizing contemporary art's connection to the past A Dictionary of the
