Brother-Making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium Claudia Rapp, 2016-02-01 The first exhaustive treatment of ritual brotherhood in Byzantium this book challenges the Boswell Thesis and argues that the ecclesiastical ritual to bless a relationship between two men bears no resemblance to marriage but has its origins in early monasticism Rediscovering Gay History John Boswell, 1982 From Rome to Constantinople Hagit Amirav, R. B. ter Haar Romeny, 2007 Collection of articles arranged in 5 subsections Historiography and rhetoric Christianity in its social context art and representation Byzantium and the workings of the empire and late antiquity in retrospect Violence and Belief in Late Antiquity Thomas Sizgorich, 2009 Thomas Sizgorich seeks to understand why and how violent expressions of religious devotion became central to the self understandings of both Christian and Muslim communities between the fourth and ninth centuries He identifies a common pool of late ancient narrative forms upon which both communities drew The Rich and the Pure Daniel Caner, 2021-09-07 A portrait of history's first complex Christian society as seen through the lens of Christian philanthropy and gift giving As the Roman Empire broke down in western Europe its prosperity moved decisively eastward to what is now known as the Byzantine Empire Here was born history's first truly affluent multifaceted Christian society One of the ideals used to unite the diverse millions of people living in this vast realm was the Christianized ideal of philanthropia In this sweeping cultural and social history Daniel Caner shows how philanthropy required living up to Jesus's injunction to Give to all who ask of you by offering mercy and or material aid to every human being regardless of their origin or status Caner shows how Christian philanthropy became articulated through distinct religious ideals of giving that helped define proper social relations among the rich the poor and the pure Christian holy people resulting in new and enduring social expectations In tracking the evolution of Christian giving over three centuries he brings to the fore the concerns of the peoples of Early Byzantium from the countryside to the lower levels of urban society to the imperial elites as well as the hierarchical relationships that arose among them The Rich and the Pure offers nothing less than a portrait of the whole of early Byzantine society Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey D. Dunn, Wendy Mayer, 2015 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen's significant contribution to early Christian late antique and Byzantine studies especially concerning bishops heresy orthodoxy and christology Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark Being Christian in Late Antiquity Carol Harrison, Caroline Humfress, Isabella Sandwell, 2014-01-30 What do we mean when we talk about being Christian in Late Antiquity This volume brings together sixteen world leading scholars of ancient Judaism Christianity and Greco Roman culture and society to explore this question in honour of the ground breaking scholarship of Professor Gillian Clark After an introduction to the volume s dedicatee and themes by Averil Cameron the papers in Section I Being Christian through Reading Writing and Hearing analyse the roles that literary genre writing reading hearing and the literature of the past played in the formation of what it meant to be Christian The essays in Section II move on to explore how late antique Christians sought to create maintain and represent Christian communities communities that were both textually created and enacted in living realities Finally in Section III The Particularities of Being Christian the contributions examine what it was to be Christian from a number of different ways of representing oneself each of which raises questions about certain kinds of particularities for example gender location education and culture Bringing together primary source material from the early Imperial period up to the seventh century AD and covering both the Eastern and Western Empires the papers in this volume demonstrate that what it meant to be Christian cannot simply be taken for granted Being Christian was part of a continual process of construction and negotiation as individuals and Christian communities alike sought to relate themselves to existing traditions social structures and identities at the same time as questioning and critiquing the past s in their present

Exploring Christian Identity from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages Chris Baghos, 2024-10-04 This book challenges the popular understanding that all Byzantines regarded the Christian faith Hellenic cultural legacy and Roman imperial tradition as inextricably linked To this end it outlines and explores the patristic resistance to the emperor s involvement in ecclesial affairs as evidenced by the writings of St Maximus the Confessor and his disciples in addition to their martyrial and monastic influences It therefore considers what the orthodox Christians of the Early Byzantine period perceived as their identity capital including the virtues defined by the New Testament and such Late Antique texts as the Acts of Justin and the Sayings of the Desert Fathers Factoring in the theological crisis of the seventh century this investigation highlights how the Confessor s clerical and lay accusers reclaimed the Greek legacy to distinguish themselves from the defenders of Christ s two wills residing in Old Rome Contrary to the conviction of many scholars this book discloses that many Byzantines did not recognise anything holy about the office of the emperor with the church fathers especially rejecting imperial trappings

The Rhetoric of Power in Late Antiquity Robert M. Frakes, Elizabeth DePalma Digeser, Justin Stephens, Late Antiquity the period of transition from the crisis of Roman Empire in the third century to the Middle Ages has traditionally been considered only in terms of the decline from classical standards Recent classical scholarship strives to consider this period on its own terms Taking the reign of Constantine the Great as its starting point this book examines the unique intersection of rhetoric religion and politics in Late Antiquity Expert scholars come together to examine ancient rhetorical texts to explore the ways in which late antique authors drew upon classical traditions present
