history explains specific works of art illustrated in Janson's History of Art and De la Croix and Tansey's Gardner's Art Through the Ages in terms of the ideas, beliefs, and concerns of the people and cultures who created the art. It brings a new understanding of art because it shows the social and cultural basis of major works of art through history. The ten sections are Ancient Near East, Egyptian, Aegean, Greek, Etruscan, Roman, early Christian, Byzantine, and Islamic, early Medieval, Romanesque, and Gothic. The readings have been drawn from many areas of intellectual and social history, including religion, philosophy, literature, science, economics, and law. Each selection is preceded by an introductory note which discusses the readings in terms of its subject and theme, its source and usage, and its relevance to the study of the work of art. Dutch

Painting In The Seventeenth Century Madlyn Millner Kahr, 2018-02-23 This new edition of an established survey of the Golden Age of Dutch painting has been revised, corrected, and updated in the text, notes, and bibliography as a result of new scholarship. The author has written a new preface to this edition. Rembrandt, Vermeer, Hals, Ruisdael, Cuyp, de Witte, van Goyen, van de Velde, Hobbema, Fabritius, de Hooch, and Saenredam are some of the painters included and discussed. Native Arts Of North America, Africa, And The South Pacific George A. Corbin, 2018-05-04 This introduction to the art of tribal peoples of North America, Africa, and the South Pacific does not briefly cover the hundreds of artistic traditions in these three vast areas but rather studies in depth thirty-six art styles within all three areas using the methods of art history, including stylistic analysis and iconographic interpretation. Emphasis is on the art in cultural context and as a system of visual communication within each tribal area. Where appropriate for a more complete understanding of the art, data from archaeology, ethnology, linguistics, religion, and other humanistic disciplines are included. Among the peoples and cultures whose art is studied are the Haida, Kwakiutl, and Tlingit; the Hohokam and Mongollon; the Anasazi and Hopi; the Dogon and Bamana of Mali; the Asante of Ghana; the Benin Yoruba and Ibo of Nigeria; the Fan; the Bamum; and the Kuba of Central Africa. Australian aboriginal and Island New Guinea art; Island Melanesia art; central and eastern Polynesia; Hawaii; and the Maori in Marginal Polynesia. The format of the text and selected illustrations is based on seventeen years of teaching African, North American, Indian, and South Pacific art to undergraduate and graduate students at Herbert H. Lehman College, CUNY New York University, and Columbia University. The book is intended for art history and anthropology students and the interested lay reader or collector. The detailed notes at the end of the book are for further study, research, and understanding of the tribal art style under discussion.

Renaissance And Renascences In Western Art Erwin Panofsky, 2018-05-04 Renaissance and Renascences in Western Art spans the period from the 10th to the 15th century, including discussion of the Carolingian renaissance and the 12th-century proto renaissance. Erwin Panofsky posits that there were renaissances prior to the widely known Renaissance that began in Italy in the 14th century. Whereas earlier renaissances can be classified as revivals, the Renaissance was a unique instance that led to a wider cultural transformation. The Renaissance Artist At Work Bruce Cole, 2018-02-02 This book gives the necessary background for the study and appreciation of Italian painting and sculpture from about 1250 to 1550.
