Properties

Many who have presented or transmitted the prayer during the last four hundred years have emphasised the importance of reciting it diligently and of taking it, as one puts it, 'as a regular practice (wird)'.² Several recommend that it be recited every morning and evening,³ and some in the morning only. Such recommendations typically encompass the salawāt, invocations of Divine Names and formulae emphasising God's unique power, but there are many variations.¹¹

In more substantial treatments recommendations concerning recitation of the prayer are intertwined with a detailing of its special properties (khawāṣṣ), for the latter are activated only through its proper use. Commentators and copyists outdo each other in
