the day after Julia Kelly McGrath's wedding and she and her husband DJ have left her family's farm in the mountains of New Hampshire to begin their new life at the Great Moose Lodge. With the man she loves and a baby on the way, Julia believes she has everything. Located in the wilds of Canada, Julia and DJ join their best friends Izzy and Peter along with the camp staff in catering to the ultra-rich. Providing guides and trackers, wealthy adventurers are led on hunting and fishing expeditions during the day and enjoy high-stakes poker and DJ's moonshine whiskey at night. What no one knows is that within weeks of the lodge opening, the world is going to be rocked by stock market crashes and the beginning of the Great Depression. At first isolated from much of what's happening around them, life at the lodge feels safe. But when their friend Esther arrives, devastated by her husband's suicide, the friends begin to realize they can no longer hide from the realities of the Depression. Join Julia and DJ as their love is tried when a past suitor finds them in the wilderness; crazy schemes take them back to a deserted castle; betrayal puts friendships to the test; and a devastating accident occurs that could cost Julia everything. Will she retreat to the security of the farm or will she fight after the one day she can't take back?

A Night to Remember is a story of hope that will have readers falling in love with Julia and DJ all over again. Through their struggles, the heart of a faithful man and the wisdom in God's design for marriage is revealed. This is a story of resilience and determination, but it's also a reminder that happy endings do exist and love never fails.

One Hundred and Sixty Minutes William Elliott Hazelgrove, 2021-09-01. One hundred and sixty minutes. That is all the time rescuers would have before the largest ship in the world slipped beneath the icy Atlantic. There was amazing heroism and astounding incompetence against the backdrop of the most advanced ship in history sinking by inches with luminaries from all over the world. It is a story of a network of wireless operators on land and sea who desperately sent messages back and forth across the dark frozen North Atlantic to mount a rescue mission. More than twenty-eight ships would be involved in the rescue of Titanic survivors along with four different countries. At the heart of the rescue are two young Marconi operators: Jack Phillips, 25, and Harold Bride, 22, tapping furiously and sending electromagnetic waves into the black night as the room they sat in slanted toward the icy depths and not stopping until the bone-numbing water was around their ankles. Then they plunged into the water after coordinating the largest rescue operation the maritime world had ever seen and thereby saving 710 people by their efforts. The race to save the largest ship in the world from certain death would reveal both heroes and villains. It would begin at 11:40 PM on April 14 when the iceberg was struck and would end at 2:20 AM April 15 when her lights blinked out and left 1500 people thrashing in 25-degree water. Although the race to save Titanic survivors would stretch on beyond this, most people in the water would die, but the amazing thing is that of the 2229 people, 710 did not, and this was the success of the Titanic rescue effort. We see the Titanic as a great tragedy, but a third of the people were rescued, and the only reason

every man woman and child did not succumb to the cold depths is due to Jack Phillips and Harold McBride in an insulated telegraph room known as the Silent Room These two men tapping out CQD and SOS distress codes while the ship took on water at the rate of 400 tons per minute from a three hundred foot gash would inaugurate the most extensive rescue operation in maritime history using the cutting edge technology of the time wireless Anthology of Dramas and Scripts for all Seasons and Reasons Eulonda Dreher,2022-08-05 Anthology of Dramas and Scripts for all Seasons and Reasons is a collection of dramas skits readings and programs which can be used by churches small groups or individuals for seasonal presentations general promotions instructional guides and programs or for reading enjoyment It includes full length dramas short stories readers theaters general interest articles puppet dramas and poems for Christmas Thanksgiving Easter and Anytime for adults and children If you have any questions and or feedback feel free to email me at eulonda mchsi com or ead61822 gmail com
