analysis of female Swahili novelists from a feminist perspective highlighting their important contributions to the living Swahili literary and intellectual tradition Compared to the diverse and centuries old oral literature or religious philosophical poetry tradition developing since at least the 17th century the novel is a relatively young phenomenon in the rich body of Swahili literary output emerging only in the last hundred years Since then academia has focused primarily on male novelists largely disregarding important female writers such as Ndyanao Balisidya Zainab Burhani Martha Mvungi Mlangala Zainab Mwanga Lucy Nyasulu and Zainab Alwi Baharoon This book traces the evolution of women's writing in Tanzania highlighting emancipatory and feminist discourses as well as intersectional themes of class education and urbanisation The author

The Cultural and Historical Heritage of Colonialism Kenneth Usongo,2022-02-17 In the time since most African countries achieved independence from European colonial powers it is unfortunate that these nations are still politically economically and culturally reordered by their former colonisers This book argues that these nations often slavishly emulate Western values to the detriment of indigenous ones It challenges the postcolony to ground itself in local experience and then nativise external values which entails delicately sifting through both the domestic and foreign worlds to build a decent and humane society
