Canadian State Trials, Volume V Barry Wright,Susan Binnie,Eric Tucker,2022-11-01 The fifth and final volume of the Canadian State Trials series examines political trials and national security measures during the period of 1939 to 1990 Essays by historians and legal scholars shed light on experiences during the Second World War and its immediate aftermath including uses of the War Measures Act and the Official Secrets Act with the unfolding of the Cold War and legal responses to the FLQ including the October Crisis labour strikes and Indigenous resistance and standoffs The volume critically examines the historical and social context of the trials and measures resulting from these events concluding the first comprehensive series on this important area of Canadian law and politics The fifth volume's exploration of state responses to real and perceived security threats is particularly timely as Canada faces new challenges to the established order ranging from Indigenous nations demanding a new constitutional framework to protestors challenging discriminatory policing and contesting public health measures Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History The Far Left in Australia since 1945 Jon Piccini,Evan Smith,Matthew Worley,2018-07-11 The far left in Australia had significant effects on post war politics culture and society The Communist Party of Australia CPA ended World War II with some 20 000 members and despite the harsh and vitriolic Cold War climate of the 1950s seeded or provided impetus for the re emergence of other movements Radicals subscribing to ideologies beyond the Soviet orbit Maoists Trotskyists anarchists and others also created parties and organisations and led movements All of these different far left parties and movements changed and shifted during time responding to one political crisis or another but they remained steadfastly devoted to a better world This collection bringing together 14 chapters from leading and emerging figures in the Australian and international historical profession for the first time charts some of these significant moments and interventions revealing the Australian far left's often forgotten contribution to the nation's history The Supreme Court and McCarthy-Era Repression Robert M. Lichtman,2012-08-15 In this volume attorney Robert M Lichtman provides a comprehensive history of the U S Supreme Court's decisions in

Communist cases during the McCarthy era Lichtman shows the Court's vulnerability to public criticism and attacks by the elected branches during periods of political repression The book describes every Communist related decision of the era none is omitted placing them in the context of political events and revealing the range and intrusiveness of McCarthy era repression In Fred Vinson's term as chief justice 1946-53 the Court largely rubber stamped government action against accused Communists and subversives After Earl Warren replaced Vinson as chief justice in 1953 however the Court began to rule against the government in Communist cases choosing the narrowest of grounds but nonetheless outraging public opinion and provoking fierce attacks from the press and Congress Legislation to curb the Court flooded Congress and seemed certain to be enacted The Court's situation was aggravated by its 1954 school desegregation decision Brown v Board of Education which led to an anti Court alliance between southern Democrats and anti Communists in both parties Although Lyndon Johnson's remarkable talents as Senate majority leader saved the Court from highly punitive legislation the attacks caused the Court to retreat with Felix Frankfurter leading a five justice majority that decided major constitutional issues for the government and effectively nullified earlier decisions Only after August 1962 when Frankfurter retired and was replaced by Arthur Goldberg did the Court again begin to vindicate individual rights in Communist cases its McCarthy era was over Demonstrating keen insight into the Supreme Court's inner workings and making extensive use of the justices papers Lichtman examines the dynamics of the Court's changes in direction and the relationships and rivalries among its justices including such towering figures as Hugo Black Felix Frankfurter Earl Warren William O Douglas and William J Brennan Jr

The Supreme Court and McCarthy Era Repression One Hundred Decisions tells the entire story of the Supreme Court during this unfortunate period of twentieth century American history

A Spy in Canaan Marc Perrusquia, 2018-03-27 Only Ernest Withers a key figure in the civil rights movement could have delivered such iconic photographs and the kind of information the FBI wanted Renowned photographer Ernest Withers captured some of the most stunning moments of the civil rights era from the age defining snapshot of Dr Martin Luther King Jr riding one of the first integrated buses in Montgomery to the haunting photo of Emmett Till's great uncle pointing an accusing finger at his nephew's killers He was trusted and beloved by King's inner circle and had a front row seat to history but few people know that Withers was also an informant for the FBI Memphis journalist Marc Perrusquia broke the story of Withers's secret life after a long investigation culminating in a landmark lawsuit against the government to release hundreds of once classified FBI documents Those files confirmed that from 1958 to 1976 Withers helped the Bureau monitor pillars of the movement including Dr Martin Luther King and others as well as dozens of civil rights foot soldiers Now on the fiftieth anniversary of King's assassination A Spy in Canaan explores the life complex motivations and legacy of this fascinating figure Ernest Withers as well as the dark shadow that era's culture of surveillance has cast on our own time Includes an 8 page black and white photo insert
