

Davina Delor
Le Bonheur
selon Bouddha

Recevoir et recevoir de la Dharma de « L'art de la vie » dans les années 1980. Peu savent qu'elle a reçu les Enseignements du Bouddha dès l'enfance, est devenue moine et a cofondé le centre monastique de Chitham Ling, auquel elle se consacre désormais.

Pour être heureux, il faut apprendre, d'abord, à mieux souffrir. Les Enseignements du Bouddha nous invitent à y parvenir en nous libérant de nos défauts et réactions réflexes. L'ego surdimensionné grâce aux câlins, des distractions et de la solitude. Le refus de l'impermanence nous transforme en victimes du changement, la peur nous terrorise, l'attachement aux biens de ce monde fait de nous des esclaves. Attention ! Dharma ne nous propose pas ni des renoncements insignifiants ni de grandes théories mondaines ; elle offre ses démonstrations dans votre vécu et nous prend au piège des manifestations qui nous révèlent. Elle nous indique aussi comment y remédier, avec l'aide des principes techniques et pratiques du bouddhisme, qui nous ouvrent les chemins de la liberté. Ce livre non blasé d'humour et néanmoins très respectueux des Textes fondamentaux nous amène à comprendre que le bonheur, avant tout, est une manière d'être. À vous de le « mettre en expérience », comme le recommandait le Bouddha en ce qui concernait ses conseils, et de juger du résultat !
