A Mirror For The Church Preaching In The First Five Centuries:

A Mirror for the Church David Dunn-Wilson, 2005 It might be assumed that Christian preachers have always proclaimed the same unchanging message in the same unchanging way to similarly comprised and receptive congregations But this assumption is far from accurate Throughout history the style and subject matter of sermons have repeatedly changed to meet the shifting needs of congregations molded by contemporary events A Mirror for the Church explores this dynamic as it developed in the early church In examining sermons preached during the first five centuries of church history David Dunn Wilson answers some important questions Who were the first preachers What did they preach about and what methods did they use What kinds of people made up the first congregations and how did they relate to the world around them In the process Dunn Wilson uncovers the homiletic themes that remained constant in early church history and shows how preachers and their churches adapted to waves of social change He also suggests ways in which the priorities of the early church might inform preaching and Christian practice today Reading Religions in the Ancient World David Edward Aune, Robin Darling Young, 2007 In Reading Religions in the Ancient World sixteen colleagues and students of Robert M Grant honor their colleague friend and mentor with essays on Classical Studies New Testament Studies and Patristic Studies These three areas of study signal the breadth and depth of Professor Grant's own scholarly interests and productivity The Bible in Christian North Africa Jonathan P. Yates, Anthony Dupont, 2023-11-06 This second volume delves into the intricate dynamics that surrounded the use of Scripture by North African Christians from the late fourth to the mid seventh century CE It focuses on the multivalent ways in which Scripture was incorporated into the fabric of ecclesial existence and theological reflection as well as on Scripture's role in informing and supporting these Christians' decision making processes This volume also highlights the intricate theological and philosophical deliberations that were carried out between and among influential North African Christian leaders and scholars in diverse cultural and geopolitical settings while paying attention to the complex manner in which these Scripture laden discourses intersected the wide variety of religious opinions and ecclesiastical and or theological movements that so clearly marked this region in this era Cicero in Heaven Carl P.E. Springer, 2017-10-02 In Cicero in Heaven The Roman Rhetor and Luther's Reformation Carl Springer traces the historical outlines of Cicero's rhetorical legacy paying special attention to the momentous impact that he had on Luther his colleagues at the University of Wittenberg and later Lutherans While the revival of interest in Cicero's rhetoric is more often associated with the Renaissance than with the Reformation it would be a mistake to overlook the important role that Luther and other reformers played in securing Cicero's place in the curricula of schools in modern Europe and America Luther's attitude towards Cicero was complex and the final chapter of the book discusses negative reactions to Cicero in the Reformation and the centuries that followed Making a Scene in the Pulpit Alyce M. McKenzie, 2018-10-23 How can preachers ensure that their sermons continue to engage listeners in a world defined by visual media and the short segmented delivery of information Alyce McKenzie harnesses the element of drama and the human fascination with scenes to offer ministers a modern means of sermon development and delivery McKenzie's core strategy is to invite listeners into scenes whether from Scripture or contemporary life and once they are there to point them toward the larger story of God's relationship with humankind Creating such scenes unifies the whole process of preaching she says from the preacher's daily life observations to interpretation of scenes from Scripture to sermon shaping sequencing and delivery The process culminates in a specific understanding of the purpose of the sermon to send listeners out into the scenes they'll play in their lives for the next week equipped to act out their parts in ways that are kinder more just and more courageous than last week

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture's diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation

Crossover City Andrew Davey, 2010-06-03 Is an urban based approach to mission still relevant in a networked global society If so what is particular about the urban context for the heart of God's mission How is that mission understood in terms of evangelism and proclamation sin and salvation the work of the sacraments and the Holy Spirit and challenge of Christ in the lives of his followers Theological reflection case studies and new insights come together as practitioners theologians and urban clergy reflect on the presence of the Church in urban communities Crossover City confronts the theological priorities of the Church as it attempts to hold the tensions between expectations of its partnership in social regeneration and welfare and its prophetic voice through its continued and transformative presence in marginalized communities It challenges the way theology is often done in isolated factions that deny openness and collaboration which must underpin the transformative mission our urban areas cry out for Critical reading for those in theological training and parish ministry seeking resources for a creative and radical witness in our increasingly urban world

What We Love: Reflections on Ministry, Leadership, and Mission Myk Habets, John Tucker, 2018-03-08 Leadership is a quality that often goes underappreciated or unrecognised in New Zealand church life But this is not how it should be Leadership is a godly and biblical quality and those with such gifts are to be celebrated and cherished This volume is a tribute to one such gifted leader Charles Hewlett eighth Principal of Carey Baptist College 2010-2017 Structured around the theme of What We Love a saying Charles would repeat often throughout his principalship faculty and students reflect on biblical theological and applied themes central to Christian thought and practice today More than an in house tribute this volume will be of interest and use to pastors and practitioners looking for considered reflections on ministry leadership and mission today Resilient Faith Gerald L. Sittser, 2019-10-15 In our Western post Christendom society much of Christianity's cultural power privilege and influence has eroded But all is not lost says bestselling author Gerald Sittser Although the church is concerned and sobered by this cultural shift it is also curious and teachable Sittser shows how the early church offers wisdom for responding creatively to the West's increasing secularization The early Christian movement was surprisingly influential and successful in the Roman world and so different from its two main rivals traditional religion and Judaism that Rome identified it as a third way Early Christians immersed themselves in the empire without significant accommodation to or isolation from the culture They confessed Jesus as Lord and formed disciples accordingly which helped the church grow in numbers and influence Sittser explores how Christians today can learn from this third way and respond faithfully creatively and winsomely to a world that sees Christianity as largely obsolete Each chapter introduces historical figures ancient texts practices and institutions to explain and explore the third way of the Jesus movement which surprising everyone changed the world Welcoming Finitude Christina M. Gschwandtner, 2019-10-01 What does it mean to experience and engage in religious ritual How does liturgy structure time and space How do our bodies move within liturgy and what impact does it have on our senses How does the experience of ritual affect us and shape our emotions or dispositions How is liturgy experienced as a communal event and how does it form the identity of those who participate in it Welcoming Finitude explores these broader questions about religious experience by focusing on the manifestation of liturgical experience in the Eastern Christian tradition Drawing on the methodological tools of contemporary phenomenology and on insights from liturgical theology the book constitutes a philosophical exploration of Orthodox liturgical experience
