A New Climate For Theology God The World And Global Warming:

A New Climate for Theology Sallie McFague, 2008-04-03 Climate change promises monumental changes to human and other planetary life in the next generations Yet government business and individuals have been largely in denial of the possibility that global warming may put our species on the road to extinction Further says Sallie McFague we have failed to see the real root of our behavioral troubles in an economic model that actually reflects distorted religious views of the person At its heart she maintains global warming occurs because we lack an appropriate understanding of ourselves as inextricably bound to the planet and its systems A New Climate for Theology not only traces the distorted notion of unlimited desire that fuels our market system it also paints an alternative idea of what being human means and what a just and sustainable economy might mean Convincing specific and wise McFague argues for an alternative economic order and for our relational identity as part of an unfolding universe that expresses divine love and human freedom It is a view that can inspire real change an altered lifestyle and a form of Christian discipleship and desire appropriate to who we really are Main

The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien, 2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien's three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author's post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective

God is Green Bob Shore-Goss, 2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God s creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change God, Humanity and the Cosmos - 3rd edition Christopher Southgate,2011-10-13 A systematic exploration of contemporary perspectives in physics evolutionary biology and psychology as they relate to theological descriptions of the universe humanity and consciousness Contributors examine such issues as theological responses to the ecological crisis how science is treated and valued in education and the development of the science and religion debate in the 21st century This is a comprehensive textbook for the student with periodic exercises to test understanding and encourage discussion of the different topics and suggestions for further reading

Fernandez,2022-05-19 So many lives have been lost now and the death toll still continues to rise because of the COVID 19 pandemic The poor and the marginalized not surprisingly have been disproportionately affected The pandemic has exposed the fault lines not only in our healthcare but also in our political and economic system a system driven by the pursuit of the bottom line profits If we are not only to survive but also thrive as a global society the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic must lead us to explore ways of thinking being and dwelling that promote our shared flourishing It is time to take personal stock about ourselves who we are where we have been and where we are heading What can the pandemic teach us about ourselves What is it revealing about us and our situation How shall we dwell together Do we want to wake up to a new and better tomorrow after this nighttime of pandemic That will largely depend on the way we respond now Who are we becoming in this time of pandemic What daily practices are we doing as embodiments of the new world we are anticipating
