A Pauline Theology Of Church Leadership Library Of New Testament Studies:

A Pauline Theology of Church Leadership Andrew D. Clarke, 2008-01-29 Scholarly studies consider Paul's views on leadership tend to fall into one of three camps 1 the historical development view which in large measure identifies developments in church practice with developments in Pauline and deutero Pauline ecclesiology 2 the synchronic historical reconstruction typically making use of Graeco Roman social context sources or social scientific modelling focusing on a single congregation and sometimes distinguishing between the situation to which Paul was responding and the pattern he sought to impose and 3 the theological hermeneutical analysis identifying Paul's particular approach to power and authority often independently of any detailed reconstruction of the situations to which Paul was responding Andrew Clarke has explored in an earlier work Serve the Community of the Church Eerdmans 2000 the distinctive local and historical situations in the various Pauline communities and concluded that there is no evidence that they organised themselves according to a common set of governmental structures which clearly developed with the passage of time Rather each community was influenced by its own localized social and cultural context The present project builds on this and necessarily focuses on leadership style rather than church order It seeks to recover from Paul's critical responses his generic ethos of church leadership including the ideal qualities characteristics and task of leaders and the nature of appropriate interaction and engagement with church members In the light of current theoretical discussions about power and gender the study focuses particularly on Paul's attitude towards hierarchy egalitarianism authority responsibility and privilege Ecclesial Solidarity in the Pauline

Corpus James T. Hughes, 2019-06-12 Over the years there have been many treatments of Paul's theology that have focused on what the churches he wrote to were like and what that might mean for today However what Paul says about relationships between churches has been frequently neglected or only briefly considered This book analyzes Paul's use of the word church as well as family imagery holiness language body imagery and Paul's understanding of imitation and apostleship to demonstrate the breadth of his understanding of relationships between churches of inter church solidarity Inter church solidarity is shown to be integral to Paul's understanding of church from the earliest letters and the book exposes a rich tapestry of relationships that should challenge and encourage the church in the twenty first century The Church according to Paul James W. Thompson, 2014-09-09 Amid conflicting ideas about what the church should be and do in a post Christian climate the missing voice is that of Paul The New Testament's most prolific church planter Paul faced diverse challenges as he worked to form congregations Leading biblical scholar James Thompson examines Paul's ministry of planting and nurturing churches in the pre Christian world to offer guidance for the contemporary church The church today as then must define itself and its mission among people who have been shaped by other experiences of community Thompson shows that Paul offers an unprecedented vision of the community that is being conformed to the image of Christ He also addresses contemporary misunderstandings of words like missional megachurch and formation Engaging Ecclesiology

A T B McGowan,2024-02-29 Engaging Ecclesiology presents eight challenging and thought provoking essays from the 2021 Edinburgh Dogmatics Conference EDC which is a biennial event led by the Rutherford Centre for Reformed Theology Considering the pressing reality of the decline of the church particularly in Europe the essays question the nature and purpose of the church in society today Using rigorous biblical and theological examination the contributors provide solutions and clarity to the ecclesiastical quandaries that have arisen over recent times The EDC creates a positive forum for the constructive discussion of Reformed Theology The essays represent a unified front in the face of the growing disunity and schisms found in the church Biblical Perspectives on Leadership and Organizations J. Lee Whittington,2016-04-29 Biblical Perspectives on Leadership and Organizations links biblically based principles to the study of organizational practices by examining topics including motives meaningful work and spiritual leadership from a biblical perspective integrated with findings from contemporary research Paul's Ekklesia as a Civic Assembly Young-Ho Park,2015-04-21 How did Paul s term ekklesia formulate the Christian self understanding Young Ho Park finds the answer in its strong civic connotation in the politico cultural world of the Greek East under the Roman Empire By addressing his local Gentile congregation as ekklesia in his letters Paul effectively created a symbolic universe in which the Christ worshippers saw themselves as the honorable citizens who represented the city before God Publisher Luke 6:40 and the Theme of Likeness Education in the New Testament Thomas W. Hudgins,2014-01-07 What does Jesus mean when he says A disciple is not above his teacher but each disciple after being fully trained will be like his teacher Luke 6 40 This verse has been quoted cited and referenced in vast amounts of Christian education and discipleship literature Nevertheless the verse is nearly untouched in exegetical discussions with the exception of source critical analyses From this verse arises an undeveloped theme in the Gospel of Luke and the New Testament the theme of likeness education Using content analysis methodology Luke 6 40 one of the keystone passages in Christian education literature serves as the starting point for mining out the theme of likeness education in the New Testament This study consists of three concentric areas of investigation 1 Luke 6 40 and its immediate context 2 Luke Acts and 3 the New Testament corpus The Mentoring Church Phil A. Newton,2020-01-06 Ministry Book of the Year The Gospel Coalition 2017 Book Awards The critical missing element in Christian mentoring today the congregation Bringing up future leaders isn t just the job of the pastor but of the whole congregation This is an urgently needed book in churches today R Albert Mohler Jr president of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Young emerging leaders of the church many of whom have gone through leadership training and traditional mentorship programs still too often find themselves unprepared for the realities of ministry Many leave the ministry altogether overwhelmed Phil Newton reveals a critical gap single source mentorship is incomplete Mentoring must involve the congregation not just senior pastors in order to bring forth mature resilient leaders prepared for all that ministry entails The solid practical solutions in The Mentoring Church offer churches of any size both the vision for mentoring future leaders and a workable template to follow With insightful consideration of theological historical and contemporary training models for pastor church partnerships Newton is a reliable guide to developing a church culture that equips fully prepared leaders Temple Purity in 1-2 Corinthians Yulin Liu, 2013 Paul's view of the church as the temple and his concern about its purity in 1-2 Corinthians has traditionally been interpreted from the perspective of a Jewish background However Yulin Liu reveals that the pagans were very aware of temple purity when visiting some temples in the Greco Roman world and the purification concerns of three pagan temples in Corinth are documented in his work The author affirms that the Gentile believers among the Corinthian community were able to grasp Paul's message because of it Also Liu investigates Paul's use of temple purity to address the necessity of unity holiness and faithfulness of the Corinthian Christians in an eschatological sense The separation of God's people from profane matters actually points to a new exodus and a progressive consummation of the construction of the eschatological temple community
