theory of the postdramatic and participates in the ongoing debate on the theatre paradigm by placing contemporary Indian performance within it None of the Indian theatre makers under study built their works directly on the Euro American model of postdramatic theatre but many have used its vocabulary and apparatus in innovative transnational ways Their principal aim was to invigorate the language of Indian urban theatre which had turned stale under the stronghold of realism inherited from colonial stage practice or prescriptive under the decolonizing drive of the theatre of roots movement after independence Emerging out of a set of different historical and cultural contexts their productions have eventually expanded and diversified the postdramatic framework by crosspollinating it with regional performance forms Theatre in India today
