The Qualitative Dissertation

Maria Piantanida, Noreen B. Garman, 1999-04-16 This guide is for students working on dissertations that are based on qualitative research The guide attempts to frame the dissertation process as a set of iterative cycles of deliberation which include facing the dissertation moving into the dissertation crafting the research proposal proposing the study living with the study entering into public discourse and adjusting to life after the dissertation The first section consists of 10 chapters focusing on these cycles The second section is comprised of five think pieces more informal and conversational conceptions and misconceptions of deliberation in relation to theoretical perspectives on discourse These pieces are titled What Do We Mean by Deliberation Dissertation Study Groups Cultivating a Community for Discursive Deliberation Knowledge Claims and the Issue of Legitimacy in Educational Research Tuning In to Discourses on Qualitative Inquiry and Text Interpretation Throughout the book insets provide many case examples Contains approximately 250 references DB

A Practical Guide to Arts-related Research Maggi Savin

Baden, Katherine Wimpenny, 2014-11-27 This book outlines the principles and practices of arts related inquiry and provides both suggestions about conducting research in the field as well as case study examples The ideas presented here have emerged from the authors own experiences of undertaking arts related research and the challenges of implementing these approaches The book therefore draws on personal research practice and experience to address the concerns academics increasingly appear to be voicing about developing the scholarship and practice of arts related research There is a need for greater attention to and clarity on issues of theoretical positioning methodology and methods when conducting robust and reputable arts related research which this book provides
