The Churchman ,1895 Globalization and the Seduction of Africa's Ruling Class K. Martial Frindéthié, 2014-01-10 Assessing development thinking from a multidisciplinary perspective this work argues that Africa is undeveloped not in spite of globalization but precisely because of globalization s saintly mission of unbridled liberalization and Euro American teleology which has reduced the African governing class to a body of abandonment neurotics co conspirators in the First World s human and economic genocides The work suggests subsequently that provided Africans remain impervious to the anti Asian agitation which is sweeping the Euro American world today they have invaluable lessons in standpoint development to learn from India s and China s experiences with liberalism as well as constructive alliances to establish with these emerging transitional nations

Sarah Bellows-Blakely,2025-05-06 An examination of how when and why austerity capitalism and strands of feminism became intertwined and why girl focused programs have been at the heart of international policymaking Girl focused education programs have long been at the heart of international policymaking when girls access to education is ensured the reasoning goes they are more likely to turn into productive adults who can drive economic growth These ideas combine strands of feminism and capitalism that have a specific and understudied origin In this book historian Sarah Bellows Blakely shows how a doctored study of girls education in East and Southern Africa led to the creation of international norms in the United Nations that would go on to guide policymaking on women s rights and economic growth promoting neoliberal feminist policy at the expense of other forms of gender based justice Focusing on the growth of free market feminism and girl focused economic development planning through the relationship between UNICEF and the Nairobi based NGO FEMNET Bellows Blakely reveals how their joint efforts set the blueprints for linked movements of economic development and women s rights that are still ongoing Through a narrative of the UNICEF FEMNET lobbying campaign Bellows Blakely shows how multiple contested girl focused visions of economic programming and gender justice became selectively erased in favor of an approach to global policy centered on the free market construction and strategic deployment of the African girl child
