A Palliative Ethic Of Care Clinical Wisdom At Lifes End:

A Palliative Ethic of Care Joseph Fins, 2006 An innovative approach to caring for the terminally ill patient A palliative ethic of care provides deeper insights into why end of life care is so challenging and suggests how to improve the care of the dying Back cover

Ethics in Palliative Care Robert C. Macauley, 2018 This is a comprehensive analysis of ethical topics in palliative care combining clinical experience and philosophical rigor A broad array of topics are explored from historical legal clinical and ethical perspectives offering both the seasoned clinician and interested lay reader a thorough examination of the complex ethical issues facing patients suffering from life threatening illness

The Oxford Handbook of Ethics at the End of Life Stuart J. Youngner, Robert M. Arnold, 2016-09-09 This handbook explores the topic of death and dying from the late twentieth to the early twenty first centuries with particular emphasis on the United States In this period technology has radically changed medical practices and the way we die as structures of power have been reshaped by the rights claims of African Americans women gays students and most relevant here patients Respecting patients values has been recognized as the essential moral component of clinical decision making Technology s promise has been seen to have a dark side it prolongs the dying process For the first time in history human beings have the ability control the timing of death With this ability comes a responsibility that is awesome and inescapable How we understand and manage this responsibility is the theme of this volume The book comprises six sections Section I examines how the law has helped shape clinical practice emphasizing the roles of rights and patient autonomy Section II focuses on specific clinical issues including death and dying in children continuous sedation as a way to relieve suffering at the end of life and the problem of prognostication in patients who are thought to be dying Section III considers psychosocial and cultural issues Section IV discusses death and dying among various vulnerable populations such as the elderly and persons with disabilities Section V deals with physician assisted suicide and active euthanasia lethal injection Finally Section VI looks at hospice and palliative care as a way to address the psychosocial and ethical problems of death and dying

Contemporary European Perspectives on the Ethics of End of Life Care Nathan Emmerich, Pierre Mallia, Bert Gordijn, Francesca Pistoia, 2020-05-12 This book examines the ethics of end of life care focusing on the kinds of decisions that are commonly made in clinical practice Specific attention is paid to the intensification of treatment for terminal symptoms particularly pain relief and the withdrawal and withholding of care particularly life saving or life prolonging medical care The book is structured into three sections The first section contains essays examining end of life care from the perspective of moral theory and theology The second sets out various conceptual terms and distinctions relevant to decision making at the end of life The third section contains chapters that focus on substantive ethical issues This format not only provides for a comprehensive analysis of the ethical issues that arise in the context of end of life care but allows readers to effectively trace the philosophical theological and conceptual underpinnings that inform their specific interests This work will be of interest to scholars working in the area as well as clinicians specialists and healthcare professionals who encounter these issues in the course of their practice End-of-Life Care and Pragmatic Decision Making D. Micah Hester, 2010 This book provides a pragmatic philosophical framework based on a radically empirical attitude toward life and death Extreme Caregiving Lisa Freitag, 2018 This book collects parent narratives personal experience and academic research to portray the lives of parent caregivers looking at both the trials and the triumphs inherent in raising a child with special needs It presents parents as moral individuals struggling to find their own way through relatively unexplored territory in order to provide for their child the best life possible Public Health in the 21st Century Madelon L. Finkel, 2010-12-13 This extensive cutting edge compilation of essays on key public health topics is a must read for professionals students and researchers with topics focusing on the effects of climate change on health global issues including treatment and prevention of diseases health care policy issues health care needs of special populations gender based violence and current issues in ethics and human rights The three volumes of Public Health in the 21st Century are comprised of timely essays on a wide variety of public health issues that affect the world today and those that may do so tomorrow The essays gathered here are the work of a team of top researchers that includes behavioral scientists medical officials environmental scientists administrators educators and health education experts Volume one covers history developments and current issues in public health Volume two is about disease treatment and prevention and volume three discusses health disparities and policies that affect public health The last volume also looks at cutting edge research to show what the future may hold discussing how we will deal with for example emerging threats to public health stemming from global warming the mismanagement of natural resources multidrug resistant diseases and the explosion of chronic disease Each chapter presents an up to date scholarly review of a specific issue and discusses the challenges that nations communities and individuals must address to create a healthier world Plum and Posner's Diagnosis and Treatment of Stupor and Coma Jerome B. Posner MD, Clifford B. Saper MD, PhD, Nicholas D. Schiff MD, Jan Claassen MD, PhD, 2019-07-30 Plum and Posner's Diagnosis and Treatment of Stupor and Coma 5th edition is a major update of the classic work on diagnosing the cause of coma with the addition of completely new sections on treatment of comatose patients by Dr Jan Claassen the Director of the Neuro ICU at Columbia New York Presbyterian Hospital The first chapter of the book provides an up to date review on the brain mechanisms that maintain a conscious state in humans and how lesions that damage these mechanisms cause loss of consciousness or coma The second chapter reviews the neurological examination of the comatose patient which provides the basis for determining whether the patient is suffering from a structural brain injury causing the coma or from a metabolic disorder of consciousness The third and fourth chapters review the pathophysiology of structural lesions causing coma and the specific disease states that result in coma Chapter five is a comprehensive treatment of the many causes of metabolic coma Chapter 6 review psychiatric causes of unresponsiveness and how to identify and treat them Chapters 7 and 8 review the overall emergency treatment of comatose patients followed by the treatment of specific causes of coma Chapter 9 examines the long term outcomes of coma including the minimally conscious state and the persistent vegetative state and how they can be distinguished and their implications for eventual useful recovery Chapter 10 reviews the topic of brain death and the standards for examination of a patient that are required to make the determination of brain death The final chapter 11 is by J J Fins a medical ethicist who was invited by the other authors to write an essay on the ethics of diagnosis and treatment of patients who by definition have no way to approve of or communicate about their wishes While providing detailed background for neurological and neurosurgical specialists the practical nature of the material in this book has found its greatest use among Internists Emergency Medicine and Intensive Care specialists who deal with comatose patients frequently but who may not have had extensive neurological training Health and Wellness , Health and Wellness Gordon Edlin,2014
