faith when he asks For whom has Christ accomplished so great a salvation Answers to that question have historically fallen in two broad categories Either Jesus died for all people without exception or he died only for those whom the Father has chosen to save Recently a mediating view has arisen arguing that we should not choose between these options but that Jesus died with multiple intentions for all without exception and for the elect alone In this book Michael Riccardi offers a critical evaluation of the multiple intentions view from the perspective of classic particularism The book demonstrates that while the third way proposed is attractive at first blush beneath the surface it faces insurmountable biblical and theological problems including the redefinition of the nature of the atonement itself Riccardi demonstrates that particular redemption is the teaching of the text of Scripture against the objections of one of its strongest opponents Luke F. Scott

Spencer,2019-04-30 The story Luke tells in his gospel says F Scott Spencer is a compelling complex narrative confession of faith in God To what degree anyone joins Luke in that faith journey is up to them but any responsible interpreter must attend considerately to Luke s theological roadmap In this latest addition to the Two Horizons New Testament Commentary series Spencer integrates close textual analysis of Luke s unfolding narrative with systematic theology spiritual formation philosophical inquiry and psychological research With section by section commentary Spencer highlights the overriding salvific message that runs through Luke s gospel Pastors scholars and students alike will benefit from Spencer s insight into Luke s theological significance Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies, Issue 4.2 Daniel S. Diffey,Ryan A. and Spirit John V. Fesko,2013-08-26 This book represents a substantial accomplishment one that provides a useful resource for those wanting to deepen their understanding of the sacraments particularly baptism Reflecting a massive amount of research against the background of an in depth survey of various views of baptism in church history Fesko provides an extensive exegetical and biblical theological study of the covenantal and eschatological significance of baptism followed by systematic theological reflections on key issues like baptism as a means of grace the efficacy of baptism the biblical warrant for infant baptism and against paedocommunion and the importance of baptism for the church One need not agree with his reflections at every point to benefit from his considerable labors Richard B Gaffin Jr Professor of Biblical and Systematic Theology Emeritus Westminster Theological Seminary The Formation of Christian Doctrine Malcolm B. Yarnell, Malcolm B. Yarnell, III, 2007 The Formation of Christian Doctrine is an advanced academic study of how Christian doctrine develops distinguishing in particular between scholarly term inventio and less revelatory process of invention The Manifesto ,1887

The Case for Zionism Thomas Ice, 2017-02-20 The modern state of Israel has been a nation for almost 70 years When she was formed and fought her early wars of existence most Bible believing Christians believed there was a real connection with what was going on in the Middle East and Bible prophecy that predicts an end time return of the Jews to their land While support for Israel remains high in most evangelical communities we are seeing the beginning of a decline especially among younger evangelicals who question whether modern Israel really relates to end time Bible prophecy The Case for Zionism attempts to bring together biblical historical and legal arguments for the legitimacy of the startup nation known as Israel as it Explains controversies such as antisemitism and Replacement Theology Details the biblical and legal rights of Modern Israel Explores the prophetic nature and future of Israel In this presentation Thomas Ice answers many of the contemporary arguments being used by both secular and religious communities to undermine what he believes is the hand of God at work in our own day
