The School News and Practical Educator ,1910 The People of the New River Leland R. Cooper,Mary Lee Cooper,2001-08-14 Said to be one of the oldest rivers in the world the New River begins at two locations in Watauga County in northwest North Carolina From there the North and South Forks meander north through Ashe County until they meet near the Virginia border and continue through a corner of Alleghany County before turning north again into Virginia and West Virginia and on to the Ohio Settlers came to the fertile bottom lands along the New River during the 18th and 19th centuries and many of their descendants still live there today In this collection of oral histories 33 people in Ashe Alleghany and Watauga counties most of whom are in their 70s 80s and 90s share memories of their lives and work on the New River and their hopes for its future They tell of floods snows sickness the Great Depression education religion quilting weaving and other crafts and the fight against a large power company that planned to flood thousands of acres of land They also recall how the river has been central to their lives in providing food transportation and recreation Coach-makers'

International Journal ,1916 Lives of Dust and Water María Luz Cruz-Torres,2022-03-29 Along the coast of northwestern Mexico pink gold may mean wealth for some but the new global economy has imposed terrible burdens on many sectors of the population State and regional economic development policies have supported the use of natural resources for commercial export resulting in the rapid growth of agriculture and shrimp aquaculture Environmental pressures have contributed to the degradation of marine ecosystems and once self reliant rural populations have been driven to wage and subsistence labor in order to survive This book eloquently explains how contemporary rural communities in southern Sinaloa have responded to economic and ecological changes affecting the entire nation A political ecology of human survival in one of the most important ecological regions of Mexico it describes how these communities contest environmental degradation and economic impoverishment arising from political and economic forces beyond their control Mar a Luz Cruz Torres evokes the rich and varied experiences of the people who live in the villages of Celaya and El Cerro showing how they invent and utilize their own social capital to emerge as whole persons in the face of globalization She traces the histories of the two villages to illustrate the complex variation involved in community formation and to show how people respond to and utilize Mexican law and reform Surrounded by limited resources poverty illness sudden death and daily oppression these men and women create innovative social and cultural forms that mitigate these impacts Cruz Torres reveals not only how they manage to survive in the midst of horrendous circumstances but also how they transcend those impediments with dignity She details the participation of household members in the subsistence formal and informal sectors of the economy and how women use a variety of resources to guarantee their families survival A sometimes tragic but ultimately vibrant story of human resistance Lives of Dust and Water offers an important look at a little studied but dynamically developing region of Mexico It contributes to a more precise understanding of how rural coastal communities in Mexico emerged and continue to develop and adjust to the uncertainties of the globalizing world Mama Day Gloria Naylor, 2017-03-14 A wonderful novel steeped in the folklore of the South from the New York Times bestselling author of The Women of Brewster Place The Washington Post Book World On an island off the coast of Georgia there s a place where superstition is more potent than any trappings of the modern world In Willow Springs the formidable Mama Day uses her powers to heal But her great niece Cocoa can t wait to get away In New York City Cocoa meets George They fall in love and marry quickly But when she finally brings him home to Willow Springs the island s darker forces come into play As their connection is challenged Cocoa and George must rely on Mama Day s mysticism Told from multiple perspectives Mama Day is equal parts star crossed love story generational saga and exploration of the supernatural Hailed as Gloria Naylor s richest and most complex novel it is the kind of book that stays with you long after the final page Providence Journal

Film Marketing into the Twenty-First Century Nolwenn Mingant, Cecilia Tirtaine, Joël Augros, 2015-10-28 How do you sell British humour to a French audience Could piracy actually be good for the film business Why are The Hobbit s revolutionary technologies not mentioned in some adverts Exploring these questions and many more Film Marketing into the Twenty First Century draws on insights from renowned film academics and leading industry professionals to chart the evolution of modern film marketing The first part of the book focuses on geographical considerations showing how marketers have to adapt their strategies locally as films travel across borders The second covers new marketing possibilities offered by the Internet as Vine Facebook and other participative websites open new venues for big distributors and independents alike Straddling practical and theoretical concerns and including case studies that take us from Nollywood to Peru this book provides an accessible introduction to the key issues at stake for film marketing in a global era The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr
