Public Education David C. Berliner,Carl Hermanns,2022 Twenty eight eminent essayists remind our nations parents educators school board members and politicians that our democracy is in jeopardy and that our nation s system of free universal public education is also under attack If that attack succeeds American democracy itself would be further imperiled That is because American democracy rests on a belief that the power of our government comes from the people and the diffusion of knowledge and the enlightenment of the people has been a cornerstone of our democracy since the founding of our republic America s public schools therefore have a special mandate Beyond Single Stories Amy Allen,Anne Marie Kavanagh,Caitríona Ní Cassaithe,2024-02-01 Every social studies curriculum tells a story It is increasingly apparent that new stories are needed to guide us through the multiple and intersecting crises that have come to define our times This accessible volume supports student teachers teachers and teacher educators to engage critically with the stories that social studies curricula tell and neglect to tell particularly those that relate and contribute to the root causes of contemporary social and ecological injustices A balanced and inclusive curriculum necessitates a broad range of stories and perspectives not just the master narratives of dominant groups Incorporating a range of pedagogical approaches and spanning a diversity of themes from representations of Africa in Chinese textbooks to slavery and the American civil rights movement to refugees and the role of indigenous knowledge systems in addressing climate breakdown this volume includes and creatively engages with previously marginalized and silenced stories and perspectives Both practical and theoretical in its approach it seeks to provoke meaningfully support and inspire educators to incorporate alternative stories or counter narratives into their social studies teaching This unique volume is essential reading for student teachers teachers teacher educators as well as anyone interested in inspiring children and young people to be open minded critically engaged and empathetic agents of change
