

3 Titans threatened the castle tower

A large Titan began to attack the tower where the 104th had taken refuge. The Titan rammed the tower with its body, and it felt as if the structure wouldn't hold for long. Gelgar and Nanaba went to kill the Titans, but the others were unable to help. It would be difficult for the two of them to eliminate all the Titans on their own.

How would they overcome their predicament?

4 The Beast Titan climbed the wall

The Beast Titan completely ignored the Survey Corps at Utgard Castle and headed toward Wall Rose to the south. It climbed on top of Wall Rose, but what did it plan to do from there?! Considering its intelligence, it had to be up to something...

What was it trying to do?!

UNEXPECTED

How can the Titans move after sundown...?

Hange's research led to the hypothesis that the Titans could only move while it was bright outside. As if to ridicule humanity's understanding of the Titans, the Titans that appeared at Utgard Castle moved around in the dead of night. Humanity may have to reevaluate its understanding of Titan biology in the aftermath of this battle.
