Awakening Sweep No 5:

Great Awakenings David Horn, Gordon L. Isaac, 2022-05-03 This book is an engaging look at spiritual awakenings that have happened in the church throughout history. It examines how these extraordinary movements of God translate into the larger cultural analysis of today. Spiritual awakenings have refreshed the people of God from the very origins of the church. What about these past movements can be instructive for the church today? Can we expect God's awakening presence in our day? These questions brought about the Surprising Work of God Conference in the fall of 2015 in which speakers traced awakening movements from the Old and New Testaments to the present day. Great Awakenings represents the culmination of this conference as the collected works of notable speakers. Chapters address questions about spiritual awakenings through historical, theological, and sociological lenses. They look at the events that precipitated these awakenings, evaluating whether their causes were purely religious or otherwise, and finally suggest what about the awakenings is normative for the church today.

The Elevator Constructor, 1928 The Human Right Rice Brooks, 2018-02-20 Many Christians believe we need to choose between fighting injustice and communicating the good news of Jesus Christ. But what if failing to speak the truth is ultimately the greatest injustice of all? If we truly believe the human heart is the source of injustice and the gospel is the only real solution, shouldn't sharing the gospel's transforming truth be our highest priority? With his thoughtful, accessible style, Rice Brooks explores why knowing the gospel is in fact every person's greatest right and therefore the greatest justice issue of our time. Drawing on contemporary stories and rich historical sources, The Human Right answers the question: What is truth? It frames evangelism as a human rights issue, explains why secularism lacks the foundation to ground human rights, gives evidence for the existence of the human soul, and describes how the Bible has shaped the modern world. The Human Right urges us persuasively toward a renewed conviction that our ultimate calling is to proclaim the gospel, the only truth that has the power to change our world to change us from the inside out.

Sounds of Valley Streams Francis Harold Cook, 1989-01-01 Sounds of Valley Streams is a study of Zen Buddhist enlightenment in nine chapters of Shōbōgenzō. Dōgen Francis H. Cook has translated the nine chapters and has preceded them with four chapters of discussion. These essays show Dōgen bringing his religious intensity, philosophical depth, and poetic power to bear on a number of different facets of enlightenment. Using striking images and poetical expressions such as "one bright pearl dragon song beyond Buddha" and "a painting of a rice cake," Dōgen explores such fundamental matters as the relationship between enlightenment and compassion, the dynamic nature of the enlightened life, the need to go beyond enlightenment, the nature of illusion and enlightenment, and what it is like to live the awakened life. The centerpiece of the translation is Genjōkōan, Manifesting Absolute Reality. It is a manifesto of the Zen life in which Dōgen proclaims the religious insight that stands at the core of everything he wrote subsequently. Cook's translation of Genjōkōan is as accurate as possible.
