Awakening Christian Science Monitor,Erwin Dain Canham,1951 Published previously in the columns of the Christian Science monitor The Surprising Work of God Garth M. Rosell,2020-03-18 The Surprising Work of God tells the story of how America s mid twentieth century spiritual awakening became a worldwide Christian movement This seminal study brings a unique perspective to the history personalities and institutions of that period and offers an intimate look at evangelicalism through the window of the life ministry and writings of Harold John Ockenga and his long friendship with Billy Graham Ockenga was pastor of the historic Park Street Congregational Church in Boston and cofounder of Fuller Theological Seminary Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary the National Association of Evangelicals and Christianity Today As such he was a central figure in the birth and development of American neo evangelicalism This lively engaging story will be of value to anyone with an interest in the American church of the last century Awakening Erwin Dain Canham,1951

Deathworlds to Lifeworlds Valerie Malhotra Bentz,James Marlatt,2021-08-02 Deathworlds are places on planet earth that can no longer sustain life These are increasing rapidly We experience remnants of Deathworlds within our Lifeworlds for example traumatic echoes of war genocide oppression Many practices and policies directly or indirectly are Deathworld Making They undermine Lifeworlds contributing to community decline illnesses climate change and species extinction This book highlights the ways in which writing about and sharing meaningful experiences may lead to social and environmental justice practices decreasing Deathworld Making Phenomenology is a method which reveals the connection between personal suffering and the suffering of the planet earth and all its creatures Sharing can lead to collaborative relationships among strangers for social and environmental justice across barriers of culture politics and language Deathworlds into Lifeworlds wakes people up to how current economic and social forces are destroying life and communities on our planet as I have mapped in my work The chapters by scholars around the world in this powerful book testify to the pervasive consequences of the proliferation of Deathworld making and ways that collaboration across cultures can help move us forward Saskia Sassen is the Robert S Lynd Professor of Sociology at Columbia University and a Member of its Committee on Global Thought Recognizing the inseparability of experience consciousness environment and problematics in rebalancing life systems this book offers solutions from around the world Four Arrows aka Don Trent Jacobs author of Sitting Bull s Words for A World in Crises et al This unique book brings together 78 participants from 11 countries to reveal the ways in which phenomenology the study of consciousness and phenomena can lead to profound personal and social transformation Such transformation is especially powerful when Deathworlds physical or cultural places that no longer sustain life are transformed into lifeworlds through collaborative sharing even when or perhaps especially when the sharing is among strangers across different cultures The contributors share a truly wide range of human experiences from the death of a child to ecological destruction in offering
