Evolving from a patrician domus the emperor s residence on the Palatine became the centre of the state administration Elaborate ceremonial regulated access to the imperial family creating a system of privilege which strengthened the centralised power Constantine followed the same model in his new capital under a Christian veneer The divine attributes of the imperial office were refashioned with the emperor as God s representative The palace was an imitation of heaven Following the loss of the empire in the West and the Near East the Palace in Constantinople was preserved subject to the transition from Late Antique to Mediaeval conditions until the Fourth Crusade attracting the attention of Visigothic Lombard Merovingian Carolingian Norman and Muslim rulers Renaissance princes later drew inspiration for their residences directly from ancient ruins and Roman literature but there was also contact with the Late Byzantine court Finally in the age of Absolutism the palace became again an instrument of power in vast centralised states with renewed interest in Roman and Byzantine ceremonial Spanning the broadest chronological and geographical limits of the Roman imperial tradition from the Principate to the Ottoman empire the papers in the volume treat various aspects of palace architecture art and ceremonial

Discover Islamic Art in the Mediterranean, 2007 The great Islamic Dynasties of the Mediterranean are the protagonists of this book together with their fascinating artistic and cultural legacy Thirty nine scholars museum curators and experts in cultural heritage from 14 countries in Europe North Africa and the Middle East are the authors of the 22 chapters that take the reader through 13 centuries of Islamic history from the period of the Prophet Muhammad up until the end of the Ottoman Empire 1922 Discover Islamic Art in the Mediterranean is a collaborative work that was written for all those who share our idea that there is not only one history but that at least as many histories as peoples exist The idea of this book is to contribute to a historically more accurate and thus more authentic understanding of Islam by offering different perspectives of interpreting history art and culture

Constructions of Power and Piety in Medieval Aleppo Yasser Tabbaa, 2010-11-01 Tabbaa argues that the intense palatial and religious architectural activity of the period was intended to create a royal image of the Ayyubid state while also fostering links between it and the urban population His study is based on an entirely new evaluation of the architectural and epigraphic aspects of the standing monuments of the period It presents for the first time full photographic coverage of these monuments as well as many new plans and other renderings and pays close attention to monumental inscriptions correcting and augmenting previous studies The book utilizes the full panoply of the available literary sources including topographies chronicles travel accounts and poetry
