

A woman in a hat and dark clothing is walking away from the viewer on a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm orange and yellow glow. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a lighter orange near the horizon. The beach is dark and reflective, mirroring the colors of the sky and the sun.

A Widows Journey Reflections On Walking Alone:

A Widow's Journey Gayle Roper, 2015-03-01 Have you recently lost your husband Are there days when you feel so terribly alone and that no one else could possibly understand Author Gayle Roper understands As a recent widow herself Gayle writes So who am I now that there s only one place at the table one pillow with a head dent one damp towel after a shower There s only one toothbrush in the holder The seat is never left up anymore I can still write Mrs in front of my name but I m no longer in a marriage relationship You need two people for a marriage and there s only me Is there only you Then join Gayle as she draws on her emotions during the loss of her beloved husband Chuck and offers you a compassionate devotional to encourage you through your darkest days Gayle knows a widow s pain is deep But she also knows God s love is deeper still And it s in His love you ll find your deepest comfort God is Enough M.E. Louis, 2017-12-03 Where do you go when life as you know it is turned completely upside down It happened to me The life I knew and loved vanished on August 7 2013 when my college sweetheart and husband of 33 years chose to end his life There are not words to describe my shock and devastation Though I was surrounded with wonderful loving people none of them could restore the half of me that died that day This was a God sized task This is my journey through shock grief mourning and healing It is the very personal and profound journey I took to ultimately discover that no matter how deep your pain God is always there and He is enough If you are grieving God Is Enough will give you hope I understand what you are going through and I am here to share my message of hope healing and faith Prayers for a Widow's Journey Gayle Roper, 2024-03-05 I don t want a future Lord I want my past But ahead lie Your plans Ahead lies life Life after a husband s death is full of grief uncertainty and loneliness Who can possibly understand the heavy ache of this new life that must be lived alone Only someone who has lived this experience too In Prayers for a Widow s Journey a collection of more than 100 reflective prayers author Gayle Roper talks to the Lord about what it feels like to be caught in the unsought solitude of widowhood Each prayer is accompanied by a verse from Scripture that grounds the prayer not in self pity but in an awareness of the boundless care of the God of all comfort Rather than explaining grief away Gayle acknowledges the pain and invites you to trust God even in these darkest of days Breaking C. Hennis, 2025-02-14 Widowhood is a journey no one chooses yet many are forced to walk In this compassionate and insightful book As a therapist author and widow invites readers into an honest exploration of grief healing and resilience after the loss of a spouse Drawing from personal experience and professional expertise she sheds light on what widows endure their unspoken struggles and how others can offer meaningful support Whether you are a widow navigating the waves of grief or a loved one seeking to understand and help this book provides guidance validation and hope Inside you ll find practical advice on what to say and what not to say ways to offer real support and insights into the complex emotions of loss Most importantly this book serves as a reminder that widows are not alone and healing though difficult is possible For those grieving for those who wish to help and for anyone looking to better understand the impact of profound loss this book is a source of comfort wisdom and connection Seasons Ernestine Rose,2018-12-23 Like life grief has its own set of seasons We all will eventually face them head on in our own time and at our own pace No matter what our loss we must learn how to endure and survive our seasons in order to live fully again In a memoir that follows the metaphor of the seasons Ernestine Rose provides an enlightening glimpse into her walk through grief after her beloved husband of forty one years passed away in 2016 Beginning with the season of summer Ernestine first recounts the year preceding Art s death as he bravely battled sarcoidosis and eventually succumbed to the disease As she leads others through the often cold and lonely seasons of autumn and winter Ernestine details how she grieved her monumental loss and slowly learned how to live without Art Finally as she reveals her entrance into spring Ernestine discloses how she found renewal hope and faith in a new beginning while gently reminding others that we all heal in our own time Seasons is the true story of a widow s journey through the seasons of grief that shares words of wisdom that will help those in mourning to learn to live love and dance again Help!
