Racisms in a Multicultural Canada Augie Fleras, 2014-04-29 In acknowledging the possibility that as the world changes so too does racism this book argues that racism is not disappearing despite claims of living in a post racial and multicultural world To the contrary racisms persist by transforming into different forms whose intent or effects remain the same to deny and disallow as well as to exclude and exploit Racisms in a Multicultural Canada is organized around the assumption that race is not simply a set of categories and that racism is not just a collection of individuals with bad attitudes Rather racism is as much a matter of interests as of attitudes of property as of prejudice of structural advantage as of personal failing of whiteness as of the other of discourse as of discrimination and of unequal power relations as of bigotry This multi dimensionality of racism complicates the challenge of formulating anti racism and anti colonialist strategies capable of addressing it Employing a critical framework that puts politics and power at the centre of analysis this book focuses on why racisms proliferate how they work in contemporary societies and how the way we think and talk about racism changes over time Specifically it examines the working of contemporary racisms in a multicultural Canada that claims to abide by principles of multiculturalism and a commitment to a post racial society

Canada's Mechanized Infantry Peter Kasurak, 2020-02-01 Canada's Mechanized Infantry explores the largely ignored development of the infantry in the Canadian Army after the First World War Although many modern studies of technology and war focus on tanks and armour soldiers from the Second World War onward have discovered that success really depends on a combination of infantry armour and artillery to form combat teams Peter Kasurak demonstrates how the army implemented successful infantry vehicles and doctrine to ultimately further its military goals during the Second World War In the postwar period however progress was slowed by a top down culture and an unwillingness to abandon conventional thinking on the primacy of foot infantry and regimental organization This insightful book is the first to examine the challenges that have confronted the Canadian Army in transforming its infantry from First World War foot soldiers into a twenty first century combat force integrating soldiers vehicles weapons and electronics

The Concept of Cultural Genocide Elisa Novic, 2016-10-13 Cultural genocide is the systematic destruction of traditions values language and other elements that make one group of people distinct from another Cultural genocide remains a recurrent topic appearing not only in the form of wide ranging claims about the commission of cultural genocide in diverse contexts but also in the legal sphere as exemplified by the discussions before the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and also the drafting of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples These discussions have however displayed the lack of a uniform understanding of the concept of cultural genocide and thus of the role that international law is expected to fulfil in this regard

The Concept of Cultural Genocide An International Law Perspective details how international law has approached the core idea underlying the concept of cultural genocide and how this framework can be strengthened and fostered It traces developments from the early conceptualisation of cultural genocide to the contemporary question of its reparation Through this journey the book discusses the evolution of various branches of international law in relation to both cultural protection and cultural destruction in light of a number of legal cases in which either the concept of cultural genocide or the idea of cultural destruction has been discussed Such cases include the destruction of cultural and religious heritage in Bosnia and Herzegovina the forced removals of Aboriginal children in Australia and Canada and the case law of the Inter American Court of Human Rights in relation to Indigenous and tribal groups cultural destruction
