Mono no Aware and Gender as Affect in Japanese Aesthetics and American Pragmatism
Johnathan Flowers,2023-03-20 Mono no Aware and Gender as Affect in Japanese Aesthetics and American Pragmatism places the naturalistic pragmatism of John Dewey in conversation with Motoori Norinaga s mono no aware a Japanese aesthetic theory of experience to examine gender as a felt experience of an aware or an affective quality of persons By treating gender as an affect Johnathan Charles Flowers argues that the experience of gendering and being gendered is a result of the affective perception of the organization of the body in line with cultural aesthetics embodied in Deweyan habit or Japanese kata broadly understood as culturally mediated transactions with the world On this view how the felt sense of identity aligns with the affective organization of society determines the nature of the possible social transactions between individuals As such this book intervenes in questions of personhood broadly and identity specifically by treating personhood itself as an affective sense In doing so this book demonstrates how questions of personhood and identity are themselves affective judgments By treating gender and other identities as aware this book advocates an expanded recognition of the how to be in the world through cultivating new ways of perceiving the affective organization of persons

Cosmopolitan Husserl
Curtis Hutt,Halla Kim,2025-09-30 This volume reflects on the themes and topics presented in Edmund Husserl s articles published in the popular Japanese magazine Kaiz in 1923 It addresses the cosmopolitan nature of Husserl s work as well as the enduring appeal of Husserl s cultural phenomenology for today s globalized age The notions of crisis and renewal are clearly central to the thought of Husserl in his outreach to Japanese readers in his Kaiz articles For Husserl something critical from the European past had to be renewed to stop the catastrophe embodied in the Great War and its aftermath from getting worse This volume explores Husserl s earliest work on European Crisis his unexpected interest in history as well as his overlooked contributions to religion politics and the ethics of renewal The chapters are divided into four main parts Part 1 addresses general issues in Husserl s cultural phenomenology with special attention paid to topics pursued in the Kaiz Part 2 provides new work on Husserl and global phenomenology It considers Husserlian engagements with Japanese and other East

Asian philosophical and religious traditions as well as the relevance of Husserl's work for the global South from the Caribbean to Africa. This volume includes chapters in Parts 1 and 2 that attempt to assay Husserl's relationship to the European other as encountered in Jewish thought. In Part 3 there is a review of the publication of the Kaiz work in addition to an early history of Husserlian phenomenology in Japan. The editors reproduce the content of the first Kaiz article in the appendix. Part 4 supplying new reader friendly English and Japanese translations. Cosmopolitan Husserl will appeal to researchers and graduate students as well as advanced undergraduate students and the general public who are interested in Husserl, phenomenology, comparative philosophy and religious studies.

Fluxus Natasha Lushetich, 2014-06-01. Focusing on the most definition resistant art movement in history and departing from its two chief characteristics intermediality and interactivity, this book develops an original theory of practice, the experiential philosophy of non-duality, which is the philosophy of dynamic co-constitutivity. This is done by tracing the performativity of intermedial works, works that fall conceptually between the art and the life media, such as Bengt af Klintberg's event score 'Eat an orange as if it were an apple' in five key areas of human experience: language, temporality, the sensorium, social rites and rituals, and systems of economic exchange. The main argument, woven with the aid of the Derridian blind tactics, the Gramscian production of social life, and the Zen-derived interexpression of Kitaro Nishida, is that the practical philosophy of co-constitutivity arises from the logic of the intermedium. In pursuing this argument, the book does three things: 1. it theorises an oeuvre that has remained under-theorised due to its fundamentally non-discursive nature, and in doing so reinstates Fluxus as an influential cultural rather than a merely artistic paradigm; 2. it serves as a companion to thinking by doing, since most Fluxus intermedia are ready-made and as such readily available in the everyday environment; and 3. it establishes the counter-hegemonic logic of fluxing while tracing its legacy in contemporary practices as diverse as the culture jamming activism of The Yes Men, the paradoxical performance work of Song Dong, and the pervasive game worlds of Blast Theory. Natasha Lushetich is an artist, researcher, and Lecturer in Performance at the University of Exeter, UK. Her specialist areas include intermedia, live art, performance, and philosophy, and questions of identity and ideology. Her recent writings have appeared in Babilonia, Performance Research, TDR, Theatre Journal, Total Art Journal, as well as in a number of edited collections.

Hijikata Tatsumi and Ohno Kazuo Sondra Fraleigh, Tamah Nakamura, 2017-12-14. Now re-issued, this compact book unravels the contribution of one of modern theatre's most charismatic innovators. Hijikata Tatsumi and Ohno Kazuo combine an account of the founding of Japanese butoh through the partnership of Hijikata and Ohno, extending to the larger story of butoh's international assimilation, an exploration of the impact of the social and political issues of post-World War II Japan on the aesthetic development of butoh, metamorphic dance experiences that students of butoh can explore, a glossary of English and Japanese terms. As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research, Routledge Performance Practitioners are unbeatable value for today's student.

Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism Gereon Kopf, Jin Y.

Park, 2009-08-13 Merleau Ponty and Buddhism explores a new mode of philosophizing through a comparative study of Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology and philosophies of major Buddhist thinkers such as Nagarjuna Chinul Dogen Shinran and Nishida Kitaro Challenging the dualistic paradigm of existing philosophical traditions Merleau Ponty proposes a philosophy in which the traditional opposites are encountered through mutual penetration Likewise a Buddhist worldview is articulated in the theory of dependent co arising or the middle path which comprehends the world and beings in the third space where the subject and the object or eternalism and annihilation exist independent of one another The thirteen essays in this volume explore this third space in their discussions of Merleau Ponty's concepts of the intentional arc the flesh of the world and the chiasm of visibility in connection with the Buddhist doctrine of no self and the five aggregates the Tiantai Buddhist concept of threefold truth Zen Buddhist huatou meditation the invocation of the Amida Buddha in True Pure Land Buddhism and Nishida's concept of basho In his philosophical project Merleau Ponty makes vigorous efforts to challenge the boundaries that divide philosophy and non philosophy the East and the West experience and concepts the subject and the object and body and mind Combining the Eastern philosophical tradition of Buddhism with Merleau Ponty's phenomenology Merleau Ponty and Buddhism offers an intercultural philosophy in which opposites intermingle in a chiasmic relationship and which brings new understanding regarding the self and the self's relation with others in a globalized and multicultural world
