Avid Writing Strategies:

The Politics of Second Language Writing Paul Kei Matsuda, Christina Ortmeier-Hooper, 2006-08-04 The Politics of Second Language Writing In Search of the Promised Land is the first edited collection to present a sustained discussion of classroom practices in larger contexts of institutional politics and policies

Writing Instruction That Works Arthur N. Applebee, Judith A. Langer, 2015-04-25 Backed by solid research Writing Instruction That Works answers the following question What is writing instruction today and what can it be tomorrow This up to date comprehensive book identifies areas of concern for the ways that writing is being taught in todays secondary schools The authors offer far reaching direction for improving writing instruction that assist both student literacy and subject learning They provide many examples of successful writing practices in each of the four core academic subjects English mathematics science and social studies history along with guidance for meeting the Common Core standards The text also includes sections on Technology and the Teaching of Writing and English Language Learners

Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K-12 Settings Anderson, Rebecca S., Mims, Clif, 2014-04-30 More emphasis is being placed on writing instruction in K 12 schools than ever before With the growing number of digital tools in the classroom it is important that K 12 teachers learn how to use these tools to effectively teach writing in all content areas The Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K 12 Settings will provide research about how students use digital tools to write both in and out of school settings as well as discuss issues and concerns related to the use of these learning methods This publication is beneficial to educators professionals and researchers working in the field of K 12 and teacher education

Constructing School Success Hugh Mehan, 1996-05-31 How can we bolster the academic success of low achieving students and provide a more egalitarian classroom setting This book describes the process of untracking an educational reform effort that has prepared students from low income linguistic and ethnic minority backgrounds for college Untracking offers all students the same academically demanding curriculum while varying the amount of institutional support they receive Helpful institutional scaffolds teach the hidden curriculum of the school allowing students to develop an academic identity and build bridges between high school and college There have been many plans and attempts to reform schools but few detailed investigations of such efforts This book is a highly readable account of a successful school reform effort It provides systematic research results concerning the educational and social consequences of untracking previously low achieving students

Trust as the Core of Instructional Leadership Delia E. Racines, 2022-06-01 Be visible and approachable Unpack necessary conversations with care Build capacity based on strengths Author Delia E Racines offers these powerful protocols and more to support instructional leaders in building a community of trust in which positive change can occur All current and aspiring instructional leaders ready to work collaboratively to improve teaching and learning will value this book Instructional leaders will use this essential guide to Understand the importance of fostering trust and competence across all relationships within their school Utilize a wide variety of reproducibles for both team building and personal reflection Dive into Educator Spotlights that provide unique perspectives on chapter tools Strategize for effective goal setting and achievement Become more intentionally present as leaders Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Be Visible and Approachable Chapter 2 Listen Closely to the Complaint for a Request Chapter 3 Invite All Voices Chapter 4 Use a Strengths Based Approach Toward Building Instructional Leadership Capacity Chapter 5 Unpack Necessary Conversations With Care Conclusion References and Resources Index Data-Driven Leadership Amanda Datnow,Vicki Park,2014-03-10 Tools and techniques from the trailblazers in data based education reform Over a period of several years Amanda Datnow and Vicki Park visited public schools with a reputation for being ahead of the pack in data driven decision making The results of this pioneering study reveal how education leaders can make data work for students and teachers rather than against them This book is an essential guide to meeting the challenges of high stakes accountability building performance based schools and improving student outcomes By following the advice in this book you ll be able to transform data overload into a data positive school culture You ll learn the difference between data driven leadership and data informed leadership and how to use distributed leadership to inspire collaboration and guided analysis Incorporating narrative reflections drawn from real educators and administrators the authors refine their observations and interviews into practical conclusions that leaders can put to use immediately This book empowers leaders to support inquiry build trust in data based initiatives establish goals for evidence use and provide educators with the skills they need to mobilize data for the good of all stakeholders Datnow and Park s ideas are easily accessible and grounded in clear examples and their seven calls about what needs to be done nail the problem and the solutions Use this book as your action guide and you ll be rewarded with better results in student learning Michael Fullan professor emeritus University of Toronto Datnow and Park uncover at last what it means to use data to inform leadership Documenting the four P s people policies practices and patterns in schools we learn about the organization and dynamics of reform informed by data A must read Ann Lieberman senior scholar Stanford University Effective Programs for Latino Students Robert E. Slavin,Margarita Calderon,Margarita Calderon,2012-11-12 Latino or Hispanic children are one of the fastest growing groups in U S schools today On average these students perform worse than Anglo students on measures of academic achievement and other measures of academic success and their drop out rate is high There are schools of excellence among those serving Latino children but the majority of these children are placed at risk by schools and community institutions unable to build on the cultural personal and linguistic strengths these children are likely to bring with them to school Schools serving Latino students need programs based on high quality research capable of being replicated and adapted to local circumstances and needs The purpose of this book is to present the current state of the art with respect to research on effective instructional programs for Latino students in elementary and secondary grades Surprisingly this has not been done before there are many books on the situation of Latino students in U S schools but none so far have reviewed research on the outcomes of programs designed to enhance the academic achievement of these students The chapters represent a broad range of methodologies from experimental to correlational to descriptive and the solutions they propose are extremely diverse Each examines in its own way programs and practices that are showing success Together they present a rich array of research based effective programs that are practical widely available and likely to make a profound difference What binds the chapters together is a shared belief that Latino students can succeed at the highest levels if they receive the quality of instruction they deserve and a shared belief that reform of schools serving many Latino students is both possible and essential This is a book filled with statistics description and reviews of research but even more it is filled with optimism about what schools for Latino students can be and what these students will achieve It is a highly relevant and useful resource for educators policymakers and researchers who want to use research to inform the decisions they make about how to help Latino students succeed in elementary and secondary schools and beyond

Centering Race, Gender, and Class in Postsecondary Planning Nicole E. Holland, Raquel Farmer-Hinton, 2025 This book encourages educational practitioners to reimagine school based postsecondary preparatory opportunities to be more inclusive cohesive and supportive of students and their families With specific attention paid to students who have been traditionally underrepresented in college going and college graduating populations the authors use theory research and empirical evidence to intentionally center and elevate students who have been overlooked or marginalized in the postsecondary planning process Based on a college and career readiness program that supported the postsecondary aspirations of Black teenage girls this book identifies how where and when school policies and practices create barriers to college and career planning Within that program traditional postsecondary practices were redesigned with specific consideration of the essential elements of time care cultural relevance and lived experiences This practical resource describes key approaches that encourage educators counselors and administrators to revise their own practices to be more beneficial and inclusive for today s diverse college aspirants Book Features Challenges school practitioners administrators and district leaders to reexamine the policies and practices they are using to prepare students for postsecondary lives Demonstrates how to intentionally dismantle one size fits all approaches to postsecondary preparation by centering the needs of diverse students Includes insights and reflections from a three year college and career readiness program in a public high school in partnership with a group of Black teenage girls Provides intentional strategies for including race class and gender in postsecondary planning
