Principles and Processes in Adult Learning

How do adults learn? What is the task of the adult educator in adult education? What can adults do to take charge of their learning process?

Learning means change and transformation. But in order to learn, argues Coenraad van Houten, we must first awaken our will. True adult education, he says, enables our spiritual ego to accomplish this. He describes the forms in which learning can be meaningfully structured, and offers advice and ideas to help overcome specific learning blockages.

This book regards the business of adult education as a full profession, and it provides a theoretical and practical basis for its true task: an awakening of the will.

Coenraad Van Houten was born in the Netherlands. After studying Chemistry, Economics and 'Social Pedagogy', he lived and worked in Indonesia, Hong Kong and Britain as a manager in business, as a consultant, and as the director of the Centre for Social Development (which he co-founded). He has developed specialist programmes and seminars on adult education, 'destiny learning' and the path of spiritual research, and presently advises organizations on training programmes. He is the author of two books and the co-founder of the New Adult Learning Movement.

Awakening the Will Coenraad van Houten,1995      Awakening the Will Coenraad van Houten,1999 How do adults learn What is the task of the adult educator in adult education What can adults do to take charge of their learning Offering a theoretical and practical framework this book regards adult education as a full profession      Threefold Nature of Destiny Learning Coenraad van Houten,2004-10-15 Coenraad van Houten has extended his path of adult education called Destiny Learning Based on Rudolf Steiner's work it is a threefold way of working with karma understanding transforming and ordering This approach opens new vistas for healing relationships and conflicts for developing creative faculties for community building and for forming initiatives based on freedom The author broadens and deepens his previous work on this theme showing that learning from destiny as well as awakening the forces of will are continuing processes His practical advice can be applied directly to everyday life Although this book develops and completes the themes of van Houten's earlier works Practising Destiny and Awakening the Will this book also stands on its own In this volume the author explains and extends crucial aspects of his threefold path of destiny learning Anyone who wants to take hold of personal development will find many nuggets of spiritual wisdom in this short book which is based on a lifetime's work      The Counselor . . . as if Soul and Spirit Matter William Bento,Edmond Knighton,2015-03-01 In an anthroposophic approach to counseling and psychotherapy we integrate the whole paradigm of spiritual science into the contemporary forms of psychology thereby re-formulating a psychology inclusive of body soul and spirit Dr William Bento Executive Director of Anthroposophic Psychology Associates of North America APANA The art of counseling is practiced in many settings An uncle counsels a troubled niece A licensed professional clinical counselor LPCC works in a treatment center for drug addicts A counselor can also be everything in between the two If you consider everyone who mentors another from life coaches to police officers to wedding planners to lawyers to intimate friends counseling includes all of us Whereas mainstream counseling psychology has been moving increasingly toward cognitive and pharmacological approaches this book brings us back to a psychology of soul and spirit Through the guidance of Anthroposophy the becoming human being and Sophia and divine wisdom counselors will rediscover here an approach to people that has the heart of soul and the light of spirit      Educating the Soul Josie Alwyn,Brien Masters,2016-04-25 The power of Shakespeare lies in his evidently conscious knowledge skill and understanding of how to work with the alchemical potential in the human soul in the crafting of his plays Each play is made as an exquisitely unique transformative device for the education of the soul Books carry on conversations across the thresholds of time and space writes Josie Alwyn in her introduction This book is the fruit of her conversation with Brien Masters a collaboration that began more than twenty years ago when she was learning to be a Waldorf teacher They open their discussions with the broader theme of the role and mission of drama in human development before focusing on the central topic the potential for metamorphosis inherent in Shakespeare's plays This creative birth giving transformative essence of Shakespeare the esoteric core of his work is vitally important to our times they suggest and contributes to the ongoing cultural education of the human soul Published to commemorate the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death Educating the Soul offers an overview of Shakespeare's journey as a playwright in the context of evolving human consciousness The heart of the book features nine essays on Shakespeare's most performed plays Just as the middle act of a Shakespearian drama gives a point of transformation so these essays represent the central unfolding dialogue that took place between the writers as the book developed This section is followed by an in depth study of Hamlet that sees the story as a learning process deeply strengthened by the primary character's own education and changing consciousness Finally the book explores the theme of transformation through The Tempest and in relation to the archetypal tree of life Accessible to all the motifs of the various chapters in this book are woven lightly together enabling the reader to follow the contents in sequence or to dip in and pick up the threads at any point

Social Work in an Unequal World Rajendra Baikady, 2025 Social Work in an Unequal World offers a comprehensive collection of current global perspectives addressing the complex issues arising at the intersection of inequality and social work The book aims to help social work educators students practitioners and policy makers think critically about the skills and knowledge they need to understand and tackle inequality and provide meaningful help to the people most in need

Practising Destiny Coenraad van Houten, 2000 Increasingly people are realizing that education must continue throughout life We face the choice of remaining as we are or developing ourselves Through his extensive experience of leading seminars and training the author developed three paths for adult learning vocational learning destiny learning and spiritual research learning He describes the sevenfold path of destiny learning that leads through group work to karmic knowledge He also describes the seven professional fields of the adult educator as an aid to self education
