Davis, Scott A. Sherman, 2014 The Ohio Experience United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform. Subcommittee on Federalism and the Census, 2005 Financing Economic Development in the 21st Century Sammis B. White, Richard D. Bingham, Edward W. Hill, 2003 Comprises 17 papers which explore alternative ways of financing local economic development Discusses the various goals of economic development that communities might seek and examines funding techniques used by the developer tax incremental financing location incentives development exaction public financing enterprise zones and other incentives and private finance Also describes financing in special situations where the more common forms of finance might not be sufficient Includes case studies of specific projects Specialized Legal Research , Stumbling Toward Sustainability John C. Dernbach, 2002 In 1992 at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro the nations of the world agreed to implement an ambitious plan for ecologically sustainable human development This book is a comprehensive review of U S efforts to achieve such development since Rio The U S has unquestionably begun to take steps toward sustainable development Yet the nation is now far from being a sustainable society and in many respects is farther away than it was in 1992 Nevertheless legal and policy tools are available to put the U S on a direct path to sustainability This book brings together 42 distinguished experts from a variety of backgrounds and academic disciplines It is among the most thorough assessments ever conducted of U S law and policy concerning the environment EPA-542/B. , Developing an Appropriate Contaminated Land Regime in China Xiaobo Zhao, 2012-12-13 Like all industrialized countries China has encountered increasing problems with land contamination in recent years Abandoned mining and manufacturing sites and obsolete industrial complexes while also creating new polluting industrial enterprises represent impending environmental threats More importantly a number of social and economic problems have developed and must be dealt with in some cases urgently Contaminated land laws and regulations have been established and have evolved in the US and UK and many other jurisdictions over the past few decades These regimes have substantially influenced the relevant legislation in the context of numerous Asian and European countries and will inevitably benefit similar legislative efforts in China This book is the first monograph that focuses on how China can learn from the US and UK with respect to contaminated land legislation and comprehensively illustrates how contaminated land law could be created in China It will be of interest to academics and practitioners in environmental law in China as well as the US and UK Financing Eco Dev in 21st Century , 14 International Business and Multinational Corporations in China 15 Taiwan s Recent Economy and Business Environment 16 Opportunities and Challenges for Hong Kong in the New Millennium Editors and Contributors Index Reclaiming Brownfields Richard C. Hula, 2016-03-23 The environmental legacy of past industrial and agricultural development can simultaneously pose serious threats to human health and impede reuse of contaminated land. The urban landscape around the world is littered with sites contaminated with a variety of toxins produced by past use. Both public and private sector actors are often reluctant to make significant investments in properties that simultaneously pose significant potential human health issues and may demand complex and very expensive cleanups. The chapters in this volume recognize that land and water contamination are now almost universally acknowledged to be key social, economic, and political issues. How multiple societies have attempted to craft and implement public policy to deal with these issues provides the central focus of the book. The volume is unique in that it provides a global comparative perspective on brownfield policy and examples of its use in a variety of countries.
