Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh

A General Introduction to the Bible David Ewert, 1990 David Ewert combines the story of the history of the biblical text with the story of the men and the women who went to great extremes to provide their generation with the Word of God in a language that could be understood
