A World Apart Women Prison And Life Behind Bars:

A World Apart Cristina Rathbone, 2007-12-18 Life in a women's prison is full of surprises writes Cristina Rathbone in her landmark account of life at MCI Framingham And so it is After two intense court battles with prison officials Rathbone gained unprecedented access to the otherwise invisible women of the oldest running women's prison in America The picture that emerges is both astounding and enraging Women reveal the agonies of separation from family and the prevalence of depression and of sexual predation and institutional malaise behind bars But they also share their more personal hopes and concerns There is horror in prison for sure but Rathbone insists there is also humor and romance and downright bloody mindedness Getting beyond the political to the personal A World Apart is both a triumph of empathy and a searing indictment of a system that has overlooked the plight of women in prison for far too long At the center of the book is Denise a mother serving five years for a first time nonviolent drug offense Denise's son is nine and obsessed with Beanie Babies when she first arrives in prison He is fourteen and in prison himself by the time she is finally released As Denise struggles to reconcile life in prison with the realities of her son's excessive freedom on the outside we meet women like Julie who gets through her time by distracting herself with flirtatious often salacious relationships with male correctional officers Louise who keeps herself going by selling makeup and personalized food packages on the prison black market Chris whose mental illness leads her to kill herself in prison and Susan who after thirteen years of intermittent incarceration has come to think of MCI Framingham as home Fearlessly truthful and revelatory A World Apart is a major work of investigative journalism and social justice

Women, Incarceration, and Human Rights Violations Alana Van Gundy, Amy Baumann-Grau, 2016-02-17 A rich examination of the neglect and abuses occurring to women in correctional facilities Women Incarceration and Human Rights Violations draws upon a wealth of case studies from around the world and class action lawsuits to shed light on covert abuse such as sexual or physical abuse as well as overt abuse such as the denial of medical treatment Adopting a feminist framework this book offers a comparative evaluation of abuse in domestic and international correctional facilities demonstrating the extent to which women are at high risk of being sexually abused and re victimized in the correctional system where pregnancy and other specific medical and health issues are consistently ignored Calling attention to the necessity of addressing the gender specific needs of women who are incarcerated Women Incarceration and Human Rights Violations offers a review of current policy laws and regulation bearing on the issue while providing concrete recommendations and policy changes to address abuses As such it will appeal to sociologists criminologists and policymakers concerned with questions of gender penology and institutional abuse Prison and the Penal System Michael Newton, 2010 An overview of the criminal justice system in the United States that reviews the history of prisons and the penal system from the beginning of the seventeenth century to the early twenty first and discusses methods of punishment local state and federal prisons alternative sentencing and related topics Women and Crime Stacy L. Mallicoat, Connie Ireland, Connie

Estrada Ireland,2013-04-30 This text provides a comprehensive and unique view into the world of women interacting with the criminal justice system

The American Prison Francis T. Cullen,Mary K. Stohr,2014 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders The American Prison Imagining a Different Future by Francis T Cullen Cheryl Lero Johnson and Mary K Stohr pulls together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay

Women and the Criminal Justice System Katherine Stuart van Wormer,Clemens Bartollas,2021-12-30 This book presents an up to date analysis of women as victims of crime as individuals under justice system supervision and as professionals in the field The text features an empowerment approach that is unified by underlying themes of the intersection of gender race and class and evidence based research Personal narratives supplement research and statistics to help students connect the text material with real life situations This new edition is informed by consideration of major ongoing social movements such as MeToo Black Lives Matter and the fight to reduce mass incarceration The text stresses contemporary topics such as recognition of lesbian bisexual and transgender issues in juvenile and adult facilities the introduction of trauma informed care in detention centers and prisons the criminalization of Black girls and women the effects of an increasingly militarized police culture and the contributions of Ruth Bader Ginsburg and other influential women With its emphasis on critical thinking this text is ideal for undergraduate courses concerning women in the justice system

When Texas Prison Scams Religion Michael G. Maness,2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ s executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history

according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We close with a proposal that utilizes the 400 000 000 hours of officer contact over ten years as a definitive influence in contrast to a commissioner that spends less than 10 minutes on each decision Maness has been lobbying Austin for 15 years to definitively access staff for his 100 000 Mothers 1% Certainty Parole Texas Constitutional Amendment which would revolutionize prison culture and save Texans millions of the dollars
