Landscapes and Identities Chris Gosden, Chris Green, Anwen Cooper, Miranda Creswell, Victoria Donnelly, Tyler Franconi, Roger Glyde, Zena Kamash, Sarah Mallet, Laura Morley, Daniel Stansbie, Letty ten Harkel, 2021-05-06 Long before the Norman Conquest of 1066 England saw periods of profound change that transformed the landscape and the identities of those who occupied it The Bronze and Iron Ages saw the introduction of now familiar animals and plants such as sheep horses wheat and oats as well as new forms of production and exchange and the first laying out of substantial fields and trackways which continued into the earliest Romano British landscapes The Anglo Saxon period saw the creation of new villages based around church and manor with ridge and furrow cultivation strips still preserved today The basis for this volume is The English Landscapes and Identities project which synthesised all the major available sources of information on English archaeology to examine this crucial period of landscape history from the middle Bronze Age c 1500 BC to the Domesday survey c 1086 AD It looks at the nature of archaeological work undertaken across England to assess its strengths and weaknesses when writing long term histories Among many other topics it examines the interaction of ecology and human action in shaping the landscape issues of movement across the landscape in various periods changing forms of food over time an understanding of spatial scale and questions of enclosing and naming the landscape culminating in a discussion of the links between landscape and identity The result is the first comprehensive account of the English landscape over a crucial 2500 year period It also offers a celebration of many centuries of archaeological work especially the intensive large scale investigations that have taken place since the 1960s and transformed our understanding of England's past A World of Becoming William E. Connolly, 2011-01-17 The prominent political theorist William E Connolly outlines a political philosophy for the contemporary world a world whose powers of creative evolution include and exceed the human estate Surviving against the Odds S. Ann Dunham, 2009-12-24 A revised version of S Ann Dunham's anthropology dissertation that examines the economic importance of the blacksmithing trade in the rural Javanese village of Kajar I Just Keep Talking Nell Irvin Painter, 2024-04-23 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK From the New York Times bestselling author of The History of White People and Old in Art School a finalist for the NBCC Award comes a comprehensive new collection of essays spanning art politics and the legacy of racism that shapes American history as we know it Throughout her prolific writing career Nell Painter has published works on such luminaries as Sojourner Truth Ralph Waldo Emerson and Malcolm X Her unique vantage on American history pushes the boundaries of personal narrative and academic authorship Led by an unbridled curiosity for her subjects Painter asks readers to reconsider ideas of race politics and identity I Just Keep Talking assembles her writing for the first time into a single volume displaying the breadth and depth of Painter's decades long historical inquiry and the evolution of Black political thought and includes a dazzling introduction and coda being published for the first time in this collection From her mining of figures like Carrie Buck and Martin Delaney for their resonance today to a deep dive into the history of exclusion through the work of Toni Morrison to a discussion of the American political landscape after the 2016 election Painter nimbly portrays the trials of a country frequently at war with itself Along with Painter s writing this collection offers her original artwork threaded throughout the book as counterpoint and emphasis Her visual art shows a deft mind turning toward the tragedy and humor of her subjects pulling from newspapers personal records and original sketches Painter s artwork testifies to the dialectic of tremendous change and stasis that continues to shape American history These essays resist easy answers in favor of complexity the inescapable sense of our country s potential thwarted by its failures This collection will surely solidify Painter s place among the finest critics and writers of the last half century Discourses of Slavery and Abolition B. Carey, M. Ellis, S. Salih, 2004-05-25 Discourses of Slavery and Abolition brings together for the first time the most important strands of current thinking on the relationship between slavery and categories of writing oratory and visual culture in the long Eighteenth century The book begins by examining writing about slavery and race by both philosophers and by authors such as Aphra Behn It considers self representation in the works of Ignatius Sancho Olaudah Equiano James Williams and Mary Prince The final section reads literary and cultural texts associated with the abolition movements of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth centuries moving beyond traditional accounts of the documents of that movement to show the importance of religious writing children s literature and the relationship between art and abolition

A Time for Tea Piya Chatterjee, 2001-11-29 An innovative ethnography of the production circulation and consumption of tea centered on the lives of the mostly women workers who produce it Burnt Cork Stephen Burge Johnson, 2012 Beginning in the 1830s and continuing for more than a century blackface minstrelsy stage performances that claimed to represent the culture of black Americans remained arguably the most popular entertainment in North America A renewed scholarly interest in this contentious form of entertainment has produced studies treating a range of issues its contradictory depictions of class race and gender its role in the development of racial stereotyping and its legacy in humor dance and music and in live performance film and television The style and substance of minstrelsy persist in popular music tap and hip hop dance the language of the standup comic and everyday rituals of contemporary culture The blackface makeup all but disappeared for a time though its influence never diminished and recently even the makeup has been making a comeback This collection of original essays brings together a group of prominent scholars of blackface performance to reflect on this complex and troublesome tradition Essays consider the early relationship of the blackface performer with American politics and the antislavery movement the relationship of minstrels to the commonplace compromises of the touring show business and to the mechanization of the industrial revolution the exploration and exploitation of blackface in the mass media by D W Griffith and Spike Lee in early sound animation and in reality television and the recent reappropriation of the form at home and abroad In addition to the editor contributors include Dale Cockrell Catherine Cole Louis Chude Sokei W T Lhamon Alice

Maurice Nicholas Sammond and Linda Williams Visions: The 'other way round' of Love and Death Günter von Hummel, 2021-10-28 If for love hate and for death life are opposites then in the other way round of love and death the opposites cancel each other out For this the simple only mirroring consciousness must be distinguished from the deeper awareness which can only be experienced securely in a self analytical practice an alytical psychocatharsis The author also shows by means of contrasts in other areas that a new view indeed a kind of vi sion can expand conventional psychoanalysis by means of such a practice It contains not only analytical but also medi tative aspects and can thus be learned by everyone himself as also described in the book Picturing Black New Orleans Arthé A. Anthony, 2023-03-07 This book illuminates the fascinating story and visual legacy of Florestine Perrault Collins who documented African American life in New Orleans between 1920 and 1949
