Godefroy,2014-10-15 The Allies claimed victory at the end of the Second World War but the United States invention of the atomic bomb and its replication by the Soviet Union posed new dangers for all nations In Peace Prepared examines what Canada s Cold War Army did to prepare for war and why and how it did it Although a Third World War never happened army officers supported by a large civilian defence workforce of scientists engineers and designers responded aggressively to the challenges presented by the possibility of nuclear attack Through innovation and adaptation they developed a collaborative and systematic approach to problem solving that not only played a significant role in the evolution of Canada s national force but also shaped how armies in the Western Alliance related to one another during the Cold War and beyond Canadian Confederation W.L. White,W.C. Soderlund,1979-01-01 The Canadian federal system is a product of a complex decision taken by the Fathers of Confederation in the 1860s That decision the political elite who took it and the milieu in which it was taken are the focus of this volume Health Literacy in Canada Laurie Hoffman-Goetz,Lorie Donelle,Rukhsana Ahmed,2014-04-21 Why do we need health literacy Through a health promotion and social justice lens Laurie Hoffman Goetz Lorie Donelle and Rukhsana Ahmed describe health literacy as an increasingly important determinant of health and highlight the necessity of health literacy skills for ensuring equitable access to health care information and services This core text offers a critical examination of how culture ethnicity social media applications and the literacy and digital divides affect individuals ability to secure health information services and support Health Literacy in Canada will inform the way we respond to public health issues in Canada and around the world This pedagogically rich and highly accessible text is ideal for use in upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in public health health promotion health communication risk communication and perception and gerontology Features contains extensive learning tools for students including summaries of key points questions for reflection learning exercises a glossary and a list of additional resources provides a comprehensive review of fundamental health literacy concepts including definitions models and measurement tools emphasizes Canadian centred examples of health literacy policy milestones offers concrete recommendations for improving health literacy in everyday settings

Racisms in a Multicultural Canada Augie Fleras,2014-04-29 In acknowledging the possibility that as the world changes so too does racism this book argues that racism is not disappearing despite claims of living in a post racial and multicultural world To the contrary racisms persist by transforming into different forms whose intent or effects remain the same to deny and disallow as well as to exclude and exploit Racisms in a Multicultural Canada is organized around the assumption that race is not simply a set of categories and that racism is not just a collection of individuals with bad attitudes Rather racism is as much a matter of interests as of attitudes of property as of prejudice of structural advantage as of personal failing of whiteness as of the other of discourse as of discrimination and of unequal power relations as of bigotry This multi dimensionality of racism complicates the challenge of formulating anti racism and anti colonialist strategies capable of addressing it Employing a critical framework that puts politics and power at the centre of analysis this book focuses on why racisms proliferate how they work in contemporary societies and how the way we think and talk about racism changes over time Specifically it examines the working of contemporary racisms in a multicultural Canada that claims to abide by principles of multiculturalism and a commitment to a post racial society

Canada's Mechanized Infantry Peter Kasurak, 2020-02-01 Canada's Mechanized Infantry explores the largely ignored development of the infantry in the Canadian Army after the First World War Although many modern studies of technology and war focus on tanks and armour soldiers from the Second World War onward have discovered that success really depends on a combination of infantry armour and artillery to form combat teams Peter Kasurak demonstrates how the army implemented successful infantry vehicles and doctrine to ultimately further its military goals during the Second World War In the postwar period however progress was slowed by a top down culture and an unwillingness to abandon conventional thinking on the primacy of foot infantry and regimental organization This insightful book is the first to examine the challenges that have confronted the Canadian Army in transforming its infantry from First World War foot soldiers into a twenty first century combat force integrating soldiers vehicles weapons and electronics

The Concept of Cultural Genocide Elisa Novic, 2016-10-13 Cultural genocide is the systematic destruction of traditions values language and other elements that make one group of people distinct from another Cultural genocide remains a recurrent topic appearing not only in the form of wide ranging claims about the commission of cultural genocide in diverse contexts but also in the legal sphere as exemplified by the discussions before the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and also the drafting of the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples These discussions have however displayed the lack of a uniform understanding of the concept of cultural genocide and thus of the role that international law is expected to fulfil in this regard The Concept of Cultural Genocide An International Law Perspective details how international law has approached the core idea underlying the concept of cultural genocide and how this framework can be strengthened and fostered It traces developments from the early conceptualisation of cultural genocide to the contemporary question of its reparation Through this journey the book discusses the evolution of various branches of international law in relation to both cultural protection and cultural destruction in light of a number of legal cases in which either the concept of cultural genocide or the idea of cultural destruction has been discussed. Such cases include the destruction of cultural and religious heritage in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the forced removals of Aboriginal children in Australia and Canada, and the case law of the Inter American Court of Human Rights in relation to Indigenous and tribal groups' cultural destruction.
