A Feminist Perspective on Virtue Ethics S. Berges, 2015-03-03 A Feminist Perspective on Virtue Ethics provides of historical survey of feminist virtue ethics and shows how the ethical theorizing of women in the past can be brought to bear on that of women in the present Imitating Christ in Magwi

Todd D. Whitmore, 2019-01-24 Imitating Christ in Magwi An Anthropological Theology achieves two things First focusing on indigenous Roman Catholics in northern Uganda and South Sudan it is a detailed ethnography of how a community sustains hope in the midst of one of the most brutal wars in recent memory that between the Ugandan government and the rebel Lord s Resistance Army Whitmore finds that the belief that the spirit of Jesus Christ can enter into a person through such devotions as the Adoration of the Eucharist gave people the wherewithal to carry out striking works of mercy during the conflict and like Jesus of Nazareth to risk their lives in the process Traditional devotion leveraged radical witness Second Gospel Mimesis is a call for theology itself to be a practice of imitating Christ Such practice requires both living among people on the far margins of society Whitmore carried out his fieldwork in Internally Displaced Persons camps and articulating a theology that foregrounds the daily if extraordinary lives of people Here ethnography is not an add on to theological concepts rather ethnography is a way of doing theology and includes what anthropologists call thick description of lives of faith Unlike theology that draws only upon abstract concepts what Whitmore calls anthropological theology is consonant with the fact that God did indeed become human It may well involve risk to one s own life Whitmore had to leave Uganda for three years after writing an article critical of the President but that is what imitatio Christi sometimes requires

Constructions of Feminine Identity in the Catholic Tradition Christopher M. Flavin, 2020-01-08 Constructions of Feminine Identity in the Catholic Tradition examines the ways in which late classical medieval women's writings serve as a means of emphasizing both faith and social identity within a distinctly Christian and later Catholic tradition which remains a major part of the understanding of faith and the self Flavin focuses on key texts from the lives of desert saints and the Passio Perpetua to the autobiographies of Counter Reformation women like Teresa of Avila to illustrate the connections between the self and the divine

His Love Endures Forever Garry J. Williams, 2016-06-14 God is love there are few more quoted statements from all of Scripture Although wonderfully simple the idea that God is fundamentally loving is incredibly profound And yet sometimes we confuse God's love with our human understanding of love an understanding that is inherently imperfect sometimes self-serving and often fickle Helping us walk in the belief that God is love not that love is God this book explores what the Bible actually teaches about how and what God loves Readers will discover that although we often misunderstand misuse and take for granted God's love it's actually more wonderful pure and satisfying than we ever imagined

Three Answers to the Question "What Is Philosophy?" Stuart Dalton, 2024-02-28 Philosophy is like a party that started over 2 500 years ago and is still going strong When you take a philosophy class you're invited to join this party but walking into a party 2 500 years late can feel a little awkward This book is meant to solve that problem The best way to feel welcome is to focus on how funny philosophy is simply because its ideals are so high that humans almost never manage to reach them This book gives three answers to the question What is philosophy 1 Philosophy is a conversation that has been going on for over 2 500 years which has been full of comedy from the beginning and will continue to be funny forever if we do it right 2 Philosophy is a very awkward business that has always been on the verge of going out of business 3 Philosophy is something that makes almost everyone write very badly In addition to this three act comedy the book also contains two practical guides to being happy and successful in philosophy classes

Global Medieval Contexts 500 – 1500 Kimberly Klimek, Pamela Troyer, Sarah Davis-Secord, Bryan Keene, 2021-06-30 Global Medieval Contexts 500 1500 Connections and Comparisons provides a unique wide lens introduction to world history during this period Designed for students new to the subject this textbook explores vital networks and relationships among geographies and cultures that shaped medieval societies The expert author team aims to advance a global view of the period and introduce the reader to histories and narratives beyond an exclusively European context Key Features Divided into chronological sections chapters are organized by four key themes Religion Economics Politics and Society This framework enables students to connect wider ideas and debates across 500 to 1500 Individual chapters address current theoretical discussions including issues around gender migration and sustainable environments The authors combined teaching experience and subject specialties ensure an engaging and accessible overview for students of history literature and those undertaking general studies courses Theory boxes and end of chapter questions provide a basis for group discussion and research Full color maps and images illustrate chapter content and support understanding As a result this text is essential reading for all those interested in learning more about the histories and cultures of the period as well as their relevance to our own contemporary experiences and perspectives This textbook is supported by a companion website providing core resources for students and lecturers
