

The Bronze Bow

Lesson Plans

Day 1 (Chapter 1 - pages 1-14)

Overview: The story begins with 18-year-old Daniel standing on the mountain where he lives, looking down at the village where he grew up. Two acquaintances from the village, Joel and his twin sister Malthace climb the mountain and meet Daniel. Daniel hears the first news of his grandmother and sister he has had since he ran away five years before. He and Joel continue talking about Daniel's life now—living with a band of outlaws who hope to overthrow the Romans someday.

Reading the Book: Ask students to imagine that their country has been taken over by a foreign nation, say China. Only a Chinese person can now be president (or prime minister) and he appoints all high government officials such as governors. In fact, the president (or prime minister) is no longer elected-- he is appointed by the Premier of China. The Chinese government makes all the laws for your country, and the income taxes your parents pay now go to China. How might your life be different? How would you feel toward the Chinese officials? What would you do?

Tell students the book they are going to read is about a young man who lives in just those circumstances - only it is the Romans, not the Chinese, who have taken over his country.

Read the first chapter together, either as a class or divided into small groups with three students reading the parts of Daniel, Joel, and Malthace while others act as narrators.

Have students fill out the study guide independently.

Grammar Connection: Use the Grammar Connection sheet to review simple and compound sentences with your students.
