Brotherly Feelings Me My Emotions And My Brother With Aspergers Syndrome:

Brotherly Feelings Sam Frender, Robin Schiffmiller, 2007 Explores the emotions that siblings of children with Asperger's Syndrome commonly experience including resentment embarrassment anger frustration and compassion My Brother Is Like a Mystery-Flavored Candy Julie M. Karavas, 2018-11-28 Every Day My Brother Is a Surprise I am so excited to tell you about my brother He's not like my friends brothers who are the same every day how boring I've heard grownups say things about my brother like he has autism or Asperger's Syndrome but I don't care what words they use I have my own way of understanding him My brother has different moods or flavors and it's not like he has a wrapper that tells me what his mood will be today that's the mystery Our mommy is almost magic because she knows all of my brother's flavors and she loves all of his flavors and helps my brother me and even other grownups and teachers to understand all of his flavors Sometimes he is sweet other times he is sour but he is always super smart and he always loves me I just need to remember that he knows how he is feeling but his face and words might not tell me I need to look more closely like I am looking under his wrapper so that I understand how he feels He needs me and I need him too If you have a mystery flavored brother maybe you already know what I mean or maybe my story can help you to understand someone in your life better too Open the book I want you to meet my brother and see how lucky I am Zach and Asperger Syndrome Tori Schultz, 2011-05 Zach has Asperger Syndrome It means that somebody is not like me No one is the same That is the most important thing you should like someone for who they are said author Tori When working with children there are so many amazing moments for learning and experiencing a world different than your own I am lucky to have had Zachary as a teacher He truly has inspired me since I met him Kathy Krebs Occupational Therapist I like that Tori wrote a book about me It is probably accurate for when it was written but not now We have come a long way Zachary Schultz Subject of the book This book has been an amazing journey for us I am so proud of Tori for expressing her feelings and being honest It has taught me how strong her love is and how wonderful forgiveness can be Tori truly loves her brother and this book expresses that Michelle Schultz Tori and Zach's mother Tori's brother has Asperger Syndrome This book attempts to express the feelings of a 6 year old toward her 9 year old brother and explain what Asperger Syndrome means to her My Brother My Best Friend SARAH B. MAUR, 2025-02-03 This is the 5 book in the My Brother My Best Friend A story about siblings and autism series this series helps young readers understand their sibling with autism better by exploring the world of autism in a easy to understand format Hayley loves her big brother Brandon but sometimes she feels left out Brandon has autism and he needs a lot of attention from Mom and Dad When plans change or Brandon has a tough day Hayley wonders where she fits in their family With the help of Grandma and a special puzzle Hayley learns that every family member is important even when things feel uneven She discovers that love patience and understanding make their family complete Feeling Left Out A Piece of Our Puzzle is a heartfelt children's book that helps siblings of autistic children navigate their emotions while celebrating the unique and valuable role they play in
